13 Killed as Tornado Rips Arkansas Town

Additional Dead, Injured Feared as Workers Begin Clean-Up in Greenwood

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer
GREENWOOD, Ark. (AP) — A tornado that devastated this western Arkansas town Friday killed at least 13 persons, police said today, as the search for additional victims resumed.

More than 270 persons were treated for injuries, either at hospitals in nearby Fort Smith or in an emergency medical center established in the library here, state police said.

The tornado swooped out of a spring thunderstorm at 3:23 p.m. Friday and slammed into the business district, leveling about half of the buildings on the town square and heavily damaging most of the others.

Search Begins

A search of the rubble resumed at dawn and workers feared that more dead and injured would be found.

The area was guarded through the night by about 30 Marine reservists from Texarkana, shifted from weekend training at nearby Ft. Chaffee, and some Air Force reservists.

Every building in the main building area, which is built on a square, was damaged.

Ambulances from several cities in the area converged on Greenwood to carry the injured to hospitals in Fort Smith, 18 miles north.

Bill Kennedy, a Fort Smith Times Record newsman, who flew over Greenwood two hours after the storm struck, said the path of destruction was about 200 feet wide and half a mile long.

Residential Area

The storm brushed through a residential area in southwest Greenwood before it slammed into the business district and then moved on to the northeast. Most of the dead were found in the first area hit.

Communications were knocked out and traffic jams developed on highways leading out of Greenwood, hampering rescue efforts.

The rampaging twister was spawned by a squall line that dumped rain on eastern Oklahoma and western Arkansas late Friday.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said tornadoes also struck near Waveland, Booneville, Dardanelle and Clarksville, all towns north and east of Greenwood, but the only deaths and injuries reported were at Greenwood.

No estimate of the property damage was available but the Weather Bureau said the twister was the most destructive Arkansas has seen since 1952 when a March storm leveled Judsonia in central Arkansas, killing 111.

Silver Tabs Will Be Used in Next Heart Transplant

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Christiana Barnard says he plans another heart transplant attempt in about six weeks, this one using permanently implanted silver studs as physiological signposts.

Barnard, leader of a South African team that performed the operation on the world's only living heart transplant patient — Dr. Philip Blaiberg — revealed plans for his third heart transplant operation at a Friday news conference in Washington.

He said surgeons will sew several silver clips around the edges of the heart after taking it from a newly dead person and implanting it in the chest of a gravely ill patient yet to be selected.

The idea will be to have the small silver clips serve as signposts to allow Barnard and his colleagues to quickly spot by X-ray any enlargement of the heart, however slight, following the transplant surgery.

Deadly Booby Traps

Viet Cong Use Poisonous Snakes

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — The Viet Cong used a poisonous snake called the bamboo viper to booby trap their caves against pursuing U.S. soldiers, an Army major said today.

The snakes—three to four feet long—were hung from the cave's ceiling by the tails, which agitates them and makes them more likely to bite, said Maj. James A. Vik, a pharmacologist at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington.

The Southeast Asian theater of operation has seven poisonous snakes in all and they constitute a strong psychological factor for American troops, Vik said in a speech for the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology.

The worst, and one of the most venomous in the world, is the blue krait in Vietnam. This small, bluish-black snake is barely four feet long and injects only a small amount of venom. But it is so potent that it can kill a monkey in 10 to 12 minutes.

He estimated that there were some 50 snake bites among U.S. troops in South Vietnam each year but that the figures were not necessarily accurate.

Of the 50, perhaps five were fatal, he said. Vik who has not been to Vietnam, said that the Army may send experts to study the snake situation.

The trouble with the standard antivenoms, useful against U.S. snakes, is that they are not effective enough against the Asian snakes. Working with the venoms of the Asian snakes, the Army hopes to have anti-venom against all of them within a year.

Besides the krait and the bamboo viper, the troops encounter the Indian cobra, the king cobra, the fer de lance and the habu. The two cobras rate just behind the krait in deadliness, their bites almost always fatal, their manners aggressive and their size the largest, running to 12 feet long. The troops do not usually encounter the sea snake which inhabits the beach areas of Vietnam.

For the snake-bitten soldier, the bite of any of the six land snakes means usually that he will be unable to walk within a half hour. The bites are extremely painful and the venom quickly depresses the heart rate and blood pressure.

FBI Research Reveals Galt As Alias for Prison Escapee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI has pinpointed an ex-convict, high school dropout and Army reject as the phantom fugitive Eric Starvo Galt, target of a massive manhunt in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The FBI said Friday a "systematic and exhaustive search" through its fingerprint files revealed Galt and 40-year-old James Earl Ray—drifter, loner, avid dancer and prison escapee—as the same man.

In its first positive identification of the man sought by the FBI since the April 4 assassination of King in Memphis, Tenn., the bureau further pictured Ray as a 40-year-old white man in trouble with the law since his youth—and one who "should be considered armed and extremely dangerous."

No Closer

There was no indication the FBI was any closer to catching Ray than it was Wednesday when it put the name Galt on a fugitive warrant charging him "and an individual whom he alleged to be his brother" with conspiring to deprive King of his civil right to travel from state to state.

In addition a warrant charging Galt with first degree murder has been issued by state authorities in Memphis.

Ray fled the Missouri Penitentiary—where he was serving the seventh year of a 20-year sentence for a 1959 market holdup and auto theft in St. Louis—on April 23, 1967.

Prison officials, who said a 1966 escape try by Ray was thwarted when he was discovered in a ventilator shaft, indicated he succeeded the next year by hiding in a truck carrying bread from the penitentiary bakery to its honor farms.

The earlier escape attempt landed Ray in a Fulton, Mo. prison hospital facility for a mental checkup.

Not Mentally Ill

"We gave him our Grade A, Class I workup," recalled Dr. Donald B. Peterson, hospital superintendent. "We found no mental disease or defect within the law."

Prison and police records showed Ray was born in Alton, Ill., son of a laborer of the same name.

Records at the Fulton facility indicated both parents were dead, but the penitentiary records listed his mother as Mrs. Lucille Ryan of St. Louis.

The FBI said Eric Starvo Galt was one of a string of aliases favored by Ray in frequent brushes with the law beginning when he was 21—several years after he dropped out of high school in the 10th grade.

In addition to the aliases John Willard and Harvey Lowmyer listed on the FBI fugitive warrant, the bureau said Ray has also called himself James McBride, James Walton, W. C. Herron and James O'Connor.

Also John Willard

John Willard was the name used by the man who checked into a shoddy Memphis rooming house overlooking the Lorraine Motel, where King was fatally shot as he stood on a balcony and talked with friends.

The FBI has said Eric Starvo Galt purchased a 30.06 rifle in Birmingham five days before the assassination. That rifle, with a telescopic sight intact, was recovered outside the rooming house just after the assassination.

While some details remained fuzzy, the portrait sketched by the FBI showed Ray as a rather average-looking ne'er-do-well of conflicting personality traits.

He was described as 5-foot-10, and 163 to 174 pounds, with brown hair, blue eyes and small scars on his forehead and right palm. He's said to have a habit of tugging on an ear when nervous. His left ear protrudes

'Get a Gun,' Judge Advises Milwaukeean

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Judge Liam Brantley, 21, had been charged with making threats handled many cases of persons to injure Seraphim set bond at arrested in racial incidents in $25,000 each, and continued the last year, told a white woman on Friday to protect her dry cleaning shop with a gun.

The Milwaukee County judge offered the advice to Mrs. Sam Corona, 39, who said she and her husband had been intimidated by two young Negro men who, she reported, made remarks about firebombs.

"You get yourself a gun," Seraphim told the woman. "If they walk in your place, you protect your property. That's the way we're going to win this war of nerves."

Seraphim, whose suburban home was picketed last year by open housing demonstrators, was asked later what he meant by a "war of nerves."

"I don't think the decent people of this community should remain unprotected," the judge said. "After all, in a community of 1.3 million people with only 2,000 police officers, we can't have a policeman in every store and in every home."

Withdrawal of Allies Might Begin by 1969

SAIGON (AP) — Defense Minister Nguyen Van Vy said today general mobilization of South Vietnam's manpower would allow the allies to begin a gradual troop withdrawal by the start of 1969.

Vy said such a general mobilization would have to be much more far reaching than the one now proposed.

Earlier this month, President Nguyen Van Thieu said that if the United States requests a withdrawal of its troops, "we can agree to a gradual withdrawal beginning by the end of 1968."

Since that time, Thieu has asked the legislature for the power to call general mobilization. The government has launched a program to set up local self-defense units around the country. Thieu also has announced an increase of 135,000 in armed forces strength, apart from any mobilization move.

Vy spoke earlier this week of the need to increase armed forces strength by 268,000 men.

At today's news conference, he said: "If we increase our troops by only 135,000 men as originally scheduled, or by the proposed 268,000... then there is a question of whether or not we can partially replace the allied troops.

Home Defense

"When the general mobilization law takes effect, it will give us not only hundreds of thousands of troops, but millions, including the self-defense groups that will take over... from the regular army units guarding the towns and cities and public installations... so the regular army can carry out full time front line duty."

"Only by this means can our regular army replace a number of allied units and hopefully allow them to begin gradual withdrawal at the beginning of 1969."

The general mobilization law is being debated in both houses of the South Vietnamese legislature.

General mobilization probably would call up men between the ages of 17 and 40, and above in some cases. All reservists and veterans would be recalled. Women might also be drafted. Stringent economic measures, including limits of imports and the implementation of rationing, probably also will be put into effect.

Sparta Soldier Dies Of Wounds in Vietnam

SPARTA (AP)—The parents of a rural Sparta serviceman were informed Friday of their son's death in Vietnam.

The Defense Department said Army Pfc. Jerry Heuer died April 15 of wounds. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Heuer.

Pfc. Heuer, 21, served in Germany before being sent to Vietnam in March following a leave at his home. He was the oldest in a family of 10 children.

Signs of Legislation Beginning

Congress Feeling Pressure for Tax Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pressure is building on Congress to break a logjam and enact President Johnson's proposed income tax hike amid some signs it may be moving—although not so fast as the administration would like.

Chairman William McCleskey Martin Jr. of the Federal Reserve Board applied new pressure Friday by coupling a plea for immediate action on the tax boost with a warning that "we are in the midst of the worst financial crisis we have had since 1931."

Martin spoke to the American Society of Newspaper Editors as the effects of a one-half per cent raise, to 5½ per cent, in the discount rate were spreading over the country in the form of increased interest costs for bank loans.

The stock market, already shaken by the discount rate increase, which tends to slow business and private spending, reacted to Martin's speech with a sharp drop.

At his home in Kensett, Ark., Chairman Wilbur D. Mills of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee—where the proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge has been bottled up for months—refused comment on the rediscount move and the statements of Martin and others.

The interest hike was generally attributed by the Federal Reserve Board to inaction on the tax bill.

Mills did say, however, that he plans to resume discussions with the House Appropriations Committee when he returns to Capitol Hill Monday.

Heads of the taxing and spending committees have been trying to work out a combination of tax increases and limitations on government spending during the year beginning July 1 and in future years as well.

Mills again, in an Arkansas speech, insisted on holding the line against increased outlays.

Congressional sources said the immediate difficulty is on the spending side, with the Appropriations Committee so far unable to agree on budget cuts as deep as Mills advocates. The administration, which for a time had resisted too severe trimming of the budget, was reportedly resigned now to going along with almost anything Congress might exact as the price of a tax increase.

The White House said Friday the rediscount boost "underscores the urgency of action on the tax bill."

Korean Reds Fire On U.N. Team

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — The U.N. Command charged that North Koreans opened fire on U.N. members of a joint observation team today in the Korean demilitarized zone.

The U.N. observers were conducting an on-the-spot investigation of an earlier shooting incident today in which North Koreans wounded an American soldier on patrol duty in the buffer zone, the command said. It said two North Koreans were wounded in the exchange of fire which ensued.

A spokesman said the second shooting incident was brief and no one was hurt.

Peace Conference

U.S. Still Open to Site Proposals From Hanoi

WASHINGTON (AP) — Johnson administration policymakers say the United States—which already has proposed 15 sites for initial contacts with North Vietnam—will consider any new sites South Vietnamese suggest.

The statement by U.S. authorities, who declined to be identified, came after the United States announced it has notified North Vietnam that Warsaw is not acceptable for initial talks because Poland has given military assistance to Hanoi.

The U.S. position was outlined in response to a statement by the North Vietnam foreign ministry, broadcast by Hanoi radio, that accused the United States of delaying talks between the two sides and asked for formal answer to Hanoi's choice of Warsaw.

Official Answers
The Hanoi statement drew a stiff rejoinder from Washington that communications between the two countries should be through private and official communication channels and not through newspaper headlines.

However, in an official Nhan Dan newspaper editorial today, North Vietnam renewed insistence that the United States accept Warsaw, "so that preliminary contacts between the two sides may start soon."

The editorial which brushed aside the 10 additional American-proposed alternatives as "unsuitable" followed a statement by a North Vietnam foreign ministry spokesman which said the sites proposed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk did not even meet U.S. conditions.

Neutral Capitals
It said that there were only U.S. embassies in the additional capitals and that many of them failed to fit Rusk's specification that they be neutral.

It said that in three weeks the United States had gone from posing no conditions to piling up "extremely absurd and insolent" ones.

Some American authorities said privately that North Vietnam's insistence on Warsaw was the result of fear of Communist China's anger over the possibility of negotiations with the Americans. U.S. and Red Chinese envoys have met privately in Warsaw for 10 years on an irregular basis, without solving any outstanding differences between the two countries.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

"They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters; These see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep." Psalm 107, 23:24

Commodore Leroy J. Alexanderson, Master of the S.S. United States, the fastest luxury liner on the high seas, has for 40 years seen and known the "works of the Lord." Of those years, 38 were spent as an officer in the Merchant Marine and in the U.S. Navy, where he is a Rear Admiral in the Reserve.

In his dedication to the sea he has also been dedicated to man's safety at sea. As in a foxhole there are no atheists, so he believes it is on the bridge of a ship. "When going into an unknown port or traveling in a dense fog one must have faith, and there is someone at my side."

A loyal Catholic and family man, the Commodore says that the love and devotion of an understanding wife has much to do with the success of a man at sea, for such a wife makes sure that nothing deters him from his duty and his concern for his ship, his passengers and crew. Commodore Alexanderson knows, as do all great men of the sea, that there is a power greater than themselves that sees them through. It is the power of faith.

Continuing Education Most Vital Question to Priests

GREEN BAY — Continuing education for priests was the subject most in need of study and action on the part of the Priests' Association of the Diocese of Green Bay, a questionnaire has revealed.

The information, gleaned from the responses of 194 priests was recently presented by the research and development committee to the 20-member coordinating board.

Catholic education, personnel assignments, pastor-assistant relations, church and youth, adult education and authority in the church were the six other topics which rated near the top of the needs list.

The research and development committee also announced a seminar on high school religious formation April 27 at Nativity Church here.

Purpose of the meeting will be to define goals and seek methods to provide best for the religious formation of high school students. The group hopes to present concrete suggestions to the diocesan education office as a result of the meeting.

Board members also received copies of a proposed constitution for a national federation of priests' groups. Members will study the constitution and make suggestions and recommendations for its improvement.

Our Saviour Lutheran To Dedicate Organ in Sunday Night Concert

An organ dedication concert to start an organ fund drive will be at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Our Saviour Lutheran Church.

At 7 a.m. Wednesday a men's fellowship breakfast will be started by the church at the Appleton Family YMCA. This will be a Bible study and discussion group.

To begin the series of weekly meetings, a discussion on "Vietnam — Dilemma for Christians," is scheduled. Material for this is prepared by the Lutheran Church in America Board of Parish Education.

This meeting will not replace the monthly brotherhood meeting but will be an added ministry.

3 Valley Firms Donate Funds to State Universities

GREEN BAY — Three Fox Valley firms have donated grants totaling $7,250 to the Wisconsin State University system. They were among the $6.6 million in gifts and grants accepted by the board of regents Friday at the Green Bay campus.

A $5,000 grant from the Mutual Insurance Companies, donated through the Homestead Mutual Insurance Co., Appleton, will be used for research by the departments of agricultural engineering and agricultural journalism.

The causes and means of preventing spontaneous ignition of agricultural commodities will be studied.

A grant of $1,250 from the Aid Association for Lutherans, Appleton, will be used to improve the university's educational program in risk, insurance and actuarial science in the School of Business.

The American Welding Society, Fox Valley Section, Appleton, donated $1,000 as an additional gift to its student loan fund.

Soo Agrees to Northwestern Merger Plans

Three Railroads Ask ICC to Incorporate Approved Conditions

CHICAGO (AP) — The Soo Line says it will withdraw its opposition to a merger of two railroads serving its territory if the Interstate Commerce Commission imposes certain conditions on the merger.

Soo officials said the conditions have been agreed to by the Soo and the two carriers seeking a merger. They are the Chicago and North Western and the Chicago Great Western.

The conditions include providing direct interchange of freight cars at Minneapolis between the Soo and the merged lines, the Milwaukee Road and the Rock Island lines through a subsidiary of the North Western.

They also would provide access for the Soo to the Roseport industrial district south of St. Paul.

Provide Access

An improved interchange for the Soo in Chicago, remove tariffs, and allow the Soo to serve Ashland, Wis., are other requests.

Soo official said "if these conditions are approved by the ICC, they will preserve the Soo Line's employees against job loss."

Suit Filed

The ICC approved the merger in April 1967, but the Soo filed suit in U.S. District Court in October to enjoin the merger.

Attorneys for the three lines have filed the conditions requested by the Soo with the ICC, and asked the commission to incorporate the conditions in any order approving the merger.

Your Problems

Alfie Told to Drop Yvonne, Her 'Spooky Arrangement'

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I met an attractive woman three months ago. (She was waiting for a bus.) We have been going out regularly, once a week, and I enjoy her company. Yvonne is divorced and has two children which the judge awarded to her husband. She is not allowed to see them, which I find very hard to understand. According to her, the judge gave her a rotten deal.

Some small things about Yvonne bother me and I'd like your views. She refuses to give me her phone number; says she lives in a boarding house where the people are very nosy. She won't let me pick her up at home, and I have never been allowed to see her to the door. Her self-imposed "curfew" is 10 p.m. (She says she had TB years ago and must have a lot of rest.)

I have never met any of her friends or relatives and she will not tell me where she works — says it is "confidential" for the government. What do you make of this? — Alfie

Dear Alfie: A lady who can't be picked up or taken home, refuses to tell you where she works, won't give you her phone number and has to be in by 10 p.m. is hiding something — like maybe a husband. My advice is to knock off this spooky arrangement.

I hope you make a better selection next time, Alfie, and your chances will be vastly improved if you don't go in for bus stop pickups.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Please print this for all the stupid girls in the world who are seeing men who are separated but not divorced. Maybe I had seen a letter like it three years ago I wouldn't be so full of nerve medicine that I can barely write this letter.

In 1965 I fell hard for a man who said I was his dream girl. He and his wife were not getting along and a divorce was in the works. I let him move in with the understanding that we would be married as soon as his divorce came through. A few months later when his divorce was final he said he wasn't ready to "give up his freedom yet."

Three years have passed and he still isn't ready. He is out four nights a week and I pace the floor smoking and crying. I am 26 years old and broke — I pay most of the bills. My reputation is ruined and my health is shot. I know now he will never marry me but I still love him in spite of everything. If you care to add something to my letter that might help others, please do so. It's too late to help me. — Destroyed at 26.

Dear D: I have nothing to add. You've said it all.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband and I have been married for nearly 32 years. We never had any children but we have several nieces and nephews.

The nieces are crazy about Ralph and they come over often. Three of these girls are teen-agers. They hop on Uncle Ralph's lap, dance with him and sit close to him on the bench when he plays ragtime jazz on the piano. He loves every minute of it.

One of the nieces announced yesterday, "I'm going to marry a man just like Uncle Ralph." I think such talk is indecent. I told Ralph to cut out the nonsense and that I am sick of seeing him act like a fool. What do you have to say on the subject? — Don't Need Trouble

Dear Don't: I see nothing indecent about young girls being friendly and affectionate with their uncle — especially in a group. If this is an example of the way your mind works, you'd better stay away from your nephews.

What is French kissing? Is it wrong? Who should set the necking limits — the boy or the girl? Can a shotgun wedding succeed? Read Ann Landers' booklet, "Teen-age Sex — Ten Ways To Cool It." Send 50 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (Copyright, 1968)

Sheinwold Sherlock Says Deed Was Wicked

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

"What a wicked deed we have just witnessed!" Sherlock Holmes exclaimed. "Harrumph. Just so." Dr. Watson agreed uncertainly. It was clear that the good doctor, kibitzing at the Baker Street Bridge Club, had not seen anything wicked.

West led the king of hearts, and continued with the queen and then the ten of hearts. South ruffed with the queen of spades, and West over-ruffed with the king.

West shifted to a low club, and East took the ace of clubs and led another heart. South ruffed with the ten of spades, and drew the rest of the missing trumps with the ace and jack. Declarer then claimed the rest of the tricks, making his contract of three spades.

Now that you have all the clues before you, see if you can name the wicked deed (add the criminal who perpetrated it) that shocked Sherlock Holmes. Make up your mind before your read on.

Too Hasty

The wicked deed occurred at the third trick, when West over-ruffed with the king of spades. This criminal play allowed South to make his contract.

West should discard instead of over-ruffing. South leads the ace of spades and then the ten of spades, hoping to hoodwink West into playing low. But West should take the ten of spades with the king and should lead a club to East's ace.

East returns another heart, and now West is sure to get the nine of spades as the setting trick. If South ruffs low, West can over-ruff at once; and if South ruffs with the jack of spades, West's nine becomes established as the master trump.

Daily Question

As dealer, you hold: S—A Q 10 8 7; H—7 2; D—K J 6; C—7 3. What do you say?

Answer: Bid one spade or pass. This is a borderline opening bid. Most experts believe in opening a hand with so much playing strength; some believe in guaranteeing more high-card strength in any opening bid.

To Your Good Health Queer Lung Disease Frequently Cures Itself

BY JOSEPH MOLNER, M. D.

Dear Dr. Molner: What effect does sarcoidosis have, and is it serious? — I.H.

Sarcoidosis is a strange and in some respects mysterious disease — mysterious because we don't know what causes it, although we do have effective treatment for it when needed.

It primarily attacks the lungs, producing lesions (damaged spots) similar to those of tuberculosis, except the lesions do not break down in the destructive way TB does.

In fact, sarcoidosis is most frequently discovered by finding a "spot" on a chest X-ray, along with enlargement of glands at the root of the lung. Because the X-ray so much resembles a TB film, it is then necessary to take a further test — the Kveim test — which is highly accurate in diagnosing sarcoidosis. This is necessary because treatment of sarcoidosis is totally different from that used for tuberculosis.

In mild cases there may be no symptoms for the patient to notice at all. In these cases, the disease subsides within two years even with no treatment.

In fact, about two-thirds of sarcoidosis patients recover without any treatment.

Only about one-third require treatment — when symptoms are bothersome, if important organs are involved, or if the disease appears to be spreading. Although the lungs are the principal target, almost any organ can be involved — glands, skin, liver, eye, bone.

Sometimes discovery of a lump is the only thing the patient ever notices. In other cases, there may be fever, loss of weight, fatigue, cough, shortness of breath.

The standard treatment, when it is necessary, is steroids — cortisone-type medication — for from six to nine months.

Since the disease exists worldwide, there has been considerable effort devoted to search for the cause. It affects the Negro race more than others, but nobody knows why. It can affect any race. It does not appear to be contagious.

Dr. Molner

In the last 10 years research people have leaned toward the belief that it may be a hypersensitivity reaction — that is, some people react to something which does no bother others.

For a time pollen from pine trees was suspected, but further study disproved that. Sensitivity to a virus or a typical bacteria has been suspected.

In all, a mysterious disease, sometimes bothersome, sometimes not, depending on the severity. Fortunately, not a terrifying one as a rule.

Dear Dr. Molner: What can be done about a dark mustache on a girl? My daughter has very dark hair, and on her arms, legs, back and stomach, too. The doctor said there wasn't anything we could do, but I hope there is something possible for the hair on her face. — W.I.

The doctor told you the medical truth. However, for the mustache, the permanent solution (although it takes time) would be to have the hairs and the roots destroyed by a licensed electrolysis operator. Or, alternatively, to bleach the hairs, so they will be less obvious, or remove them with a depilatory cream (provided it does not irritate the skin) or even by shaving. This hairiness is often a familial trait.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is there a special time of day to take the birth-control pill? How many hours should be allowed before sexual relations after taking the pill? — Mrs. J.

The time of day makes no difference in any way — so long as one pill is taken on each scheduled day. It is best, however, to establish a habit of taking the pill at the same time each day, to minimize the risk of forgetting.

What causes "balance" trouble? What can be done to correct or overcome it? Dr. Molner's new booklet, "Dizzy Spells," discusses loss of balance, vertigo and nausea. Meniere's disease and labyrinthitis. For a copy of the booklet write to Dr. Molner in care of The Post-Crescent enclosing 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Johnson Regains Reputation

During the winter, with no end of the war in sight, growing rumbles from our cities, monetary troubles that even threatened the devaluation of the dollar, and polls which showed the President's popularity at an all-time low, it was hard to realize that Lyndon B. Johnson often had been described as primarily a masterful politician. But can anyone doubt it today?

Three weeks ago two rebellious Democratic hopefuls had wreaked havoc within the party by their efforts to gain the presidential nomination. Senator McCarthy, especially, had the unpopularity of the war on his side but Senator Kennedy also was using the war as blame for the conditions of poverty and discrimination among some Americans. Senator Kennedy could conveniently ignore the fact that President Johnson's two major advisors on the war had been inherited from the Cabinet of President John Kennedy. Senator McCarthy could even afford to tread lightly in civil rights discussions and not risk offending either side. For everything could be blamed upon the Administration of President Johnson. The President himself was being portrayed more and more as a stubborn man, a prisoner of his policies and out of touch with the everyday American.

By announcing his decision not to run for or accept the nomination of his party for the presidency, Mr. Johnson has made invalid the charges that he is an ambitious seeker of power. By slowing down the war in Vietnam, he has disposed of claims that he wants only a complete military victory. In almost saying "I told you so" to Congress over its previous failure to pass open housing legislation and a stronger civil rights law, he removed himself from responsibility in the tragedy in Memphis and the subsequent violence in the cities.

In less than three weeks President Johnson has almost defused the major charges against him and against his administration. He can even afford to wait awhile before announcing his own choice as his successor.

All of this does not put a mark of approval upon President Johnson's 4½ years in office. We were sucked into a ground war in Asia and more than 20,000 American men have paid with their lives for that mistake. There continue to be appalling examples of discrimination, cutbacks in welfare and educational programs, confusion in the rest of the world about the condition of the dollar, serious doubts over the ability of the United States to be a world leader.

But President Johnson took control of things once more and whatever happens there can be little doubt in anyone's mind over who is running the country. Politics is often described as the art of the possible but less than three weeks ago very little of our present situation would have been considered likely. Only a masterful politician like President Lyndon B. Johnson would have recognized the possibilities.

Government Grants and Education

There has been a growing criticism at our colleges and universities over the extent to which research has been controlled by the government.

The control does not come through regulations or restrictions. It comes from money since the United States Government has become one of the major sources of grants for research projects. And of course this also means that members of the intellectual community who have snatched up the grants without concern about strings attached must bear the brunt of the responsibility for the control.

Projects of the Central Intelligence Agency have made the headlines principally because, right or wrong, it generates the distasteful idea of a secret police, common to totalitarian nations. But there have been all sorts of projects accepted by university faculty members which obviously are aimed at forwarding American influence in the world rather than seeking out basic truth, which is supposed to be the primary aim of the academic community. Chemical-biological weaponry at the University of Pennsylvania, Project Camelot which brought social scientists to figure out how to subvert revolutionary programs in Latin America, Project Agile, a counter-insurgency study by anthropologists in Thailand are only some of those listed by critical essayists in The Dissenting Academy.

A major question in all this must then be to what extent should American scholars use their talents to develop and promote projects and ideas conceived in Washington? Is it a patriotic duty or is it likely to interfere with the scholar's pursuit of truth? And in a purely practical concern, how much does it distract the teacher from his teaching responsibilities?

In a review of The Dissenting Academy, Martin Duberman charges that "the academy's failures are due to culture, not nature. One can hardly grow up in the American ethos of each-against-all individualism, in an atmosphere which emphasizes the virtue of accumulation (goods, power, prestige) and at the same time develop concern for one's neighbors, profession or community. The corruptions of the academy are, writ small, the corruptions of our society. A change in society's values must therefore precede (or at least parallel) any change in those of academia."

Duberman then believes that the willingness of faculty members to accept government grants for projects is merely a matter of selfishness, the seeking of prestige or maybe a nice trip and has nothing to do with serving one's country. This may well be true. But if society's values are to be changed, who should be the leaders of such change?

Clearly the intellectuals of the nation, the majority of whom are professors at our colleges and universities, must bear a major responsibility. Getting back to the important matter of teaching, of demonstrating the difference between what man is and what he could and should be, and away from prestige projects and publishing might be the first step in that direction which in the long run would also be of greatest service to the nation and the world.

Meanwhile, the Fifth Avenue Vietnam Peace Parade will be moving down Fifth Avenue on its way to the Sheep Meadow for an antiwar rally and a speech by Mayor John Lindsay. A few other columns to this rally are expected from Harlem, Washington Square Park and Central Park West. Even anyone unfamiliar with New York City streets can see there may be a collision.

If the almost inevitable happens, there won't be much loyalty or peace apparent in New York on April 27. Who ever wrote that song, "I Love A Parade?"

Bang-Up Parade in the Making

There are signs of a real brouhaha building up in New York City. Two big parades are scheduled for April 27 and to make it worse, the sponsoring groups are not exactly friendly.

The Loyalty Day parade is under the direction of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and they became somewhat testy last year when a few hecklers taunted them. Usually parades are kept off main thoroughfares on business days but the Loyalty Day people have permission this year to come down to Fifth Avenue past St. Patrick's Cathedral to offer tribute to the late Cardinal Spellman.

Looking Backward

Great Snowstorm Hits Appleton

100 YEARS AGO
Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for April 25, 1868.

One of those odd freaks of nature, a heavy snow-storm in spring-time, occurred here this week

On Tuesday night, after several warm and beautiful days, we were favored with a noiseless fall of snow to the depth of one inch and a half.

On Wednesday, slight flakes of snow fell steadily all forenoon, melting as they fell. In the afternoon it grew a little colder and snowed heavily until late at night; Thursday morning opening clear as crystal, with three inches of snow which at once began to disappear.

No damage done and nobody is to blame!

25 YEARS AGO
Saturday, April 17, 1943.

Keglers from the Appleton Elks Lodge won the Eastern League championship under the team name of the Navy. Members were Harold Finger, Louis Pointer, Lee Feavel, Joe Hantschel, Ed Hoile, Pete DeLain and Dr. A. J. Gloss. George Ward also took top all-events with a total of 1,818, eight more pins than the former leader. Fourth place was won in the doubles event by Appleton Elks Lou Powers and F. X. Schmieder.

Bowling champs in the Businessmen's League at Little Chute were the Hammen's Bar team composed of John Masoros, Emil Hinkens, Ole Gossens, Joe Verhagen and John Gerritts.

Fifty three wins and 28 losses won the championship record for the Kesslers in the Women's Bowling League at Kimberly. Members were Eva Franz, Dickie Cook, Bernadine Thein, Jean Frassetto and Mrs. Elaine Weyenberg.

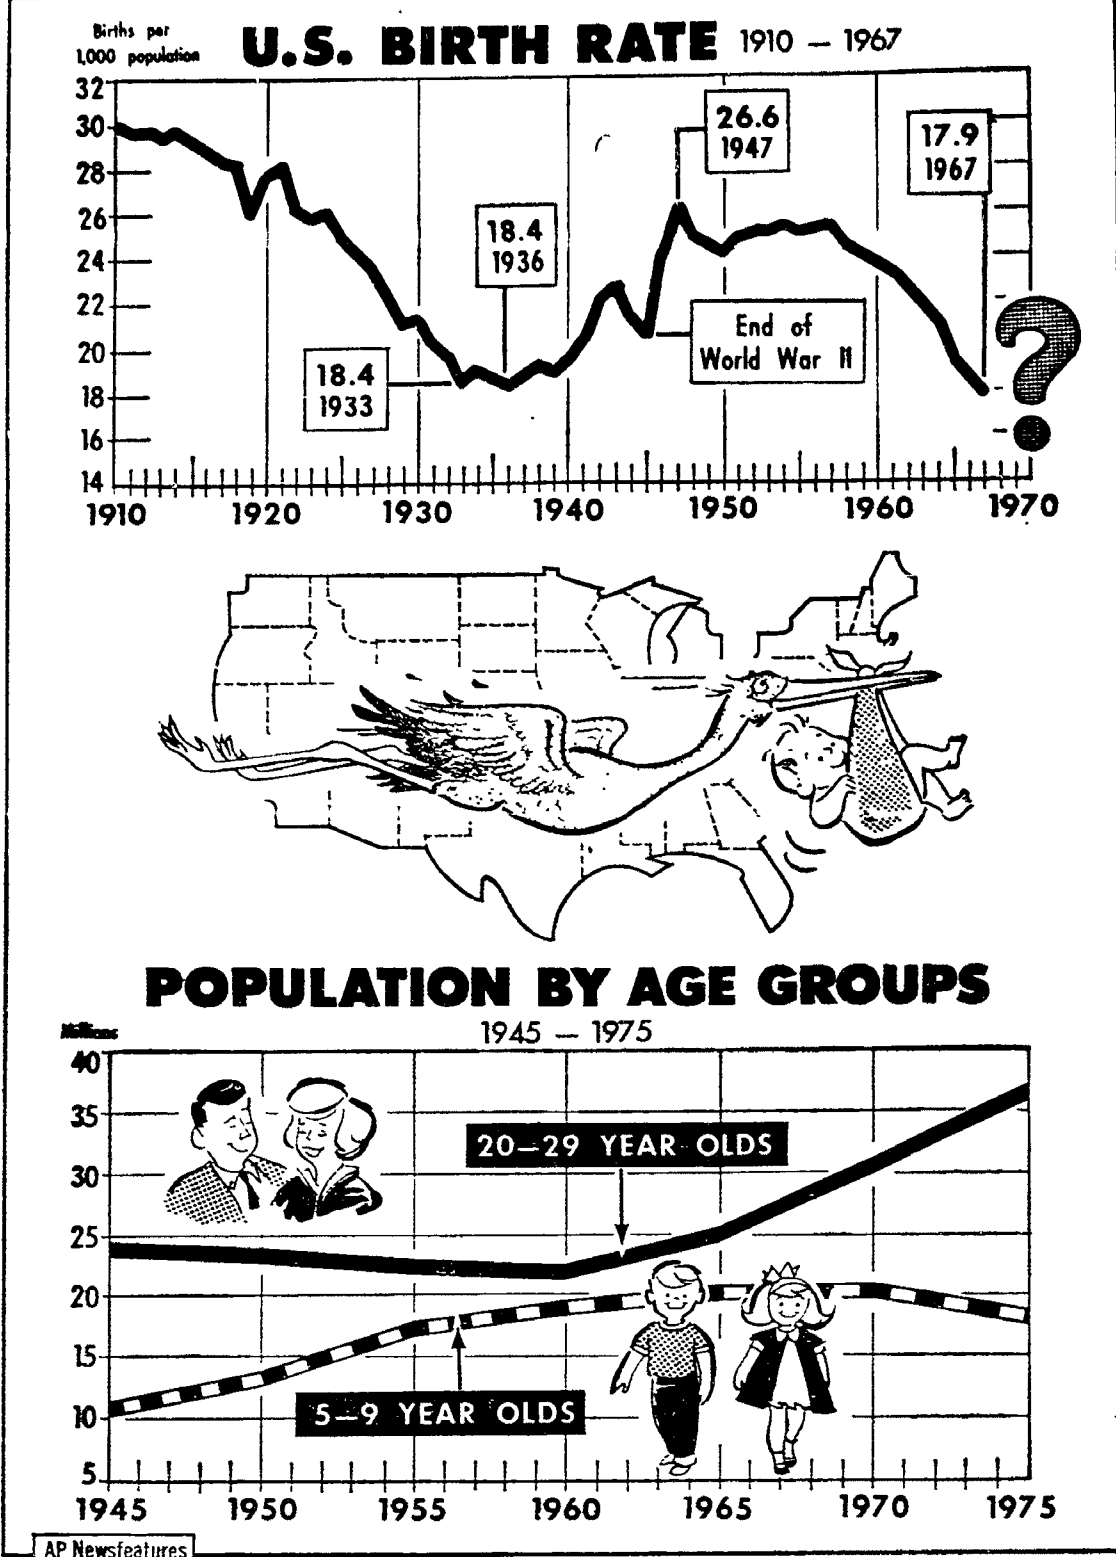

10 YEARS AGO

Bertha, the baby elephant owned by circus man Bill Griffith Jr. of Appleton, was the featured performer at the Home show that weekend. The Knights of Pythias "star performer" used the parking lot at Morrison and Kimball streets as her stage.

Thirteen St. Mary High School Band members were to make their last appearance with the musical group at the spring concert that weekend.

The seniors were Diane Roegner, Joan Rankin, Elizabeth Forster, Robert Laemmrich, Pat Burke, Mary Kleiber, Bob Foley, Tom Parker, Jack Holland, Tom Hughes, Bonnie Belanger, Joe Wydeven and Walter Jacobs.

Mrs. Alvin Braatz was elected president of the Waupaca Lochs women curlers. Other officers were Mrs. William A. Nelson, vice president; Mrs. Russel Wiesen, secretary; Mrs. Harold Bammel, treasurer; Mrs. Betty Bagan and Mrs. Sam Taylor, directors

Total Trend Unclear

U.S. Records Lowest Birth Rate; See Upward Trend in '70

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

While in most of the world, birth rates remain dangerously high, the United States just recorded the lowest birth rate in its entire history.

And experts say that during 1969 the rate probably will go even lower. But then, they say, the downtrend will be reversed, beginning about 1970.

During 1967, according to the National Center for Health Statistics, the U.S. birth rate was 17.9 per 1,000 total resident population. It was the sixth consecutive year of decline, with total births at 3.53 million, compared with 3,629-

000 babies born in 1966 and 4,257,850 in 1960.

Lower Than in 1930's
The birth rate of 17.9 is a further decline from last year's low of 18.4 and compares with the 18.4 rate recorded in 1933 and 1936, in the midst of the depression.

The current downward trend is the result of reductions in birth rates for second and subsequent children, with the rate of first births remaining relatively the same since 1959. It is expected that by 1970 the rate of first births will be rising, with increases in birth rates of second and subsequent children likely to follow a year or two later.

Thus the downtrend is expected to be reversed within the next few years as increasing numbers of postwar children reach marriageable age and begin their own families.

The decline in the number of births has been considerably more marked among whites than nonwhites. In 1965, for example, the number of white births was 3,123,860, a decline of 13.2 per cent since 1960. But nonwhite births in the same period fell by only 3.1 per cent.

Trend Isn't Clear

It is not yet clear, however, whether the recent declines in the birth rate represent only changes in timing of births or whether there will actually be another decline in completed family size.

With the advancement of contraceptive devices, most married couples control their fertility and are reasonably successful in achieving their desired goal.

However, there are some five million women living in poverty for whom family planning facilities are not available.

As government family planning programs become effective, they could have a significant impact on the future U.S. birth rate, since the proportion of families of four and more children is higher among the poverty group than in the total population.

The U.S. population has reached 201 million, while the world contained an estimated 3.443 billion people on Jan. 1, 1968.

Taxpayers Thanked for ATI Training

Editor, Post-Crescent:

In a few short weeks, I will be graduating from the Appleton Technical Institute, (formerly known as the Appleton Vocational Technical and Adult school, or just plain Vocational School). I am an accounting major enrolled in this town's two-year associate degree program.

At this time, I would like to take the opportunity to thank all the local taxpayers for making my enrollment and graduation from this unique school possible. I would also like to inform the taxpayers that their hard-earned tax dollars are certainly being put to good use, (in this particular case anyway). All of us at "ATI" really appreciate their assistance.

The students, as well as the employers, are beginning to realize the great job that this technical school is doing; and, all of our local taxpayers make this possible. With my deepest sincerity, I thank them again.

Third Term May Not Be as Rewarding as Knowles Would Like

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — Third terms in the governor's office are the hardest and sometimes the least satisfying, as some of the few men in this century who have been elected chief executive of the state three times are known to have felt.

As a man who has had a more extensive experience in practical politics over a period of 25 years than most of his political contemporaries, Gov. Warren Knowles is surely under the most favorable circumstances.

After having served four years, and repeatedly addressed ideas and proposals to the legislature, the gubernatorial capacity for new matter tends to dry up. Most of the issues and ideas he regarded as most important in his own mind have been enacted, and thus he is reduced to a considerable degree to repeating those propositions that have been ignored or defeated by the legislative branch in earlier and more propitious years.

The political spotlight shines on the governor's office more brightly than on any other office in state politics. After four or five years, the cumulative effect of controversy and minority attack, and even error, tends to be felt. The satisfactions and the joys of high place, in some instances, begin to pall. The excitement of the first years is difficult to revive. Sometimes the continued attacks of the opposition begin to show an enervating effect upon the man who is their target.

NEXT TIME

In the case of Knowles, moreover, the problem of a third term achievement is likely to be affected considerably by the nearly inevitable necessity for unpopular decisions and recommendations — as in taxation, notably.

It is likely that some of his Republican organization friends flinched a little when they read the governor's candid statement about the "tremendous strain that will be put on our present state tax structure" during the next two years. Thus, he went on, "the possibility of a tax increase in the next biennium must be faced squarely."

He added hopefully that a continued expansion of the economy will generate enough additional state treasury income to offset the inevitable costs pressures. But he made no predictions.

What he was doing was to face the problem honestly, so that when the reality occurs two years hence, and if he is responsible as the re-elected governor for working out a new revenue budget, he won't be accused of misleading the people in this campaign year.

Indeed, he might have added a footnote to his declaration, acknowledging that one of the reasons for his role as the favorite in the new election is the minor miracle of having avoided a general tax increase this year.

People's Forum

NFO, Oren Lee Staley Backed by Farm Wife

Editor, The Post-Crescent:

I have just heard your editorial on the NFO slaughtering pigs. Just why should you be concerned with a few hundred or thousand dead pigs? Think of the human beings involved, the farmers! Do you think they like to kill their animals? They are not doing it for fun or joy, only to bring their protest in the open. All the farmer has been getting for the past 20 years is lip service.

You talk of Staley talking of supply and demand; it's long been known the processor can control this by his contract cattle.

Where did you get this information? From Swift & Co? Get efficient, you said, we've all gone through that years ago, even the better quality beef and pork?

I have never heard such a stinking editorial, reeking of a pay-off to you somewhere along the line. Otherwise an editor would have more brains to come out with such anti-farmers views.

Oren Lee Staley a Pied Piper? No, I would gauge him a great leader in agriculture. No other farm organization has been alive 'til the NFO came along. We own 240 acres and are dairy farmers. With a conservative estimate of our investment at $80,000, we make a return of a little over $2,000. That's with man and wife and seven slave (our children) laborers thrown in. We don't think of ourselves as farmers following the piper. What the farmers want is how the NFO is run. In other words, the farmer plays the music, not Staley.

Weren't you told to say there was a surplus or that there were too many farmers? Do me a favor and get the last Farm Journal and see how farmers feel. This is a drastic time in agriculture and it will take equal events to bring it in the open.

Recalls Paar's Remark About Bad TV Shows

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Regarding the letter of April 14, "How Can Children be Spared Lust, Horror?" I wonder what the writer told her child when President Kennedy or more recently, the Rev. Martin Luther King was assassinated. Both incidents had wide television coverage. What do you tell your child when the nightly newscasts show the "horrors" that occur everyday in our own area and around the world? Do you say "Mark, all the bad things on television are just pretended to scare us?" What a shock your child will have when he discovers he can no longer pretend things aren't as they really are!

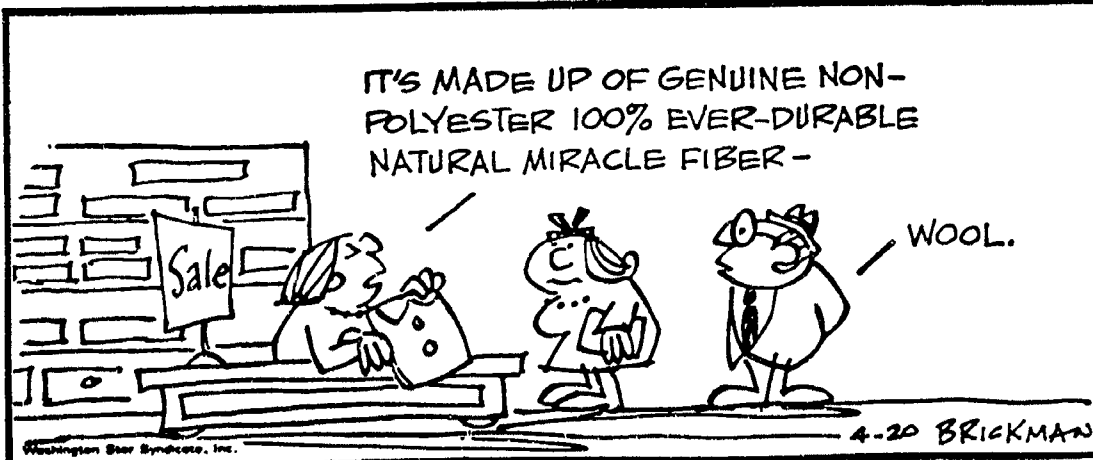

To quote Jack Paar "I have never seen a bad television program, because I refuse to. God gave me a mind, and a wrist that turns things off."

U.S. Warplanes Set Bombing Record Second Day in Row

By ROBERT D. OHMAN
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. warplanes set a 1968 record for the second straight day Friday as they flew 160 missions to blast supply targets in North Vietnam's southern panhandle.

American fliers had set a record for the year Thursday when they flew 145 missions, the largest number in nearly four months.

The Air Force, Navy and Marine pilots on Friday's raids said they encountered light ground fire and evaded several anti-aircraft missiles fired at them in the coastal area between Vinh and Dong Hoi.

They hit bridges, roads, trucks and supply points in the area left open to them under President Johnson's bombing curtailment order, designed to draw Hanoi into peace talks.

The northeast monsoon over North Vietnam is almost over and with the rapidly improving weather, the number of American air strikes is expected to increase unless the President orders further curtailment.

Although Friday's 160 missions set a record for 1968, the number is well below the all-time Vietnam war record of 209 set last Aug. 19 before the monsoon season began.

The U.S. Command said the deepest penetration Friday was about 168 miles above the demilitarized zone, just a railroad south near Vinh. This was below the 19th Parallel, a boundary U.S. planes have been observing, even though Johnson's public statements gave the northern limit as the 20th Parallel.

No American planes were reported shot down, but in a weekly report the U.S. Command said 1,070 American warplanes had been lost in combat as of Tuesday—823 over North Vietnam and 247 in the South. Another 1,002 planes have been announced lost in accidents not involving direct enemy action.

The command also announced that 643 helicopters have been shot down, all but nine in South Vietnam, and another 920 choppers have been lost to nonhostile causes.

In ground fighting, some of the 100,000 allied troops in Operation Complete Victory, the biggest allied campaign of the war—reported three clashes Friday near Saigon. They said 58 Viet Cong were killed while U.S. losses were five killed and 28 wounded.

Along the northern frontier, North Vietnamese troops struck at the newly reopened overland supply road to Khe Sanh Friday, ambushing a U.S. Marine truck convoy while pinning down Leathernecks on a road clearing operation nearby.

slightly further than his right ear.

Ray was said by authorities to have worked at various times as a laborer, baker and color-matcher. In addition, persons who came in contact with him while he was outside prison said he spoke of having worked as a merchant seaman and riverboat cook.

All told, the records show Ray has spent 13 years and 5 months behind bars—not counting detention on charges of which he wasn't convicted.

Also not included in that total is the three-month stretch at hard labor he received for being drunk and "breaking arrest" while in the Army from February 1946 to December 1948.

The Army washed Ray out on a general discharge, saying he was inept and couldn't adapt to military life.

Trudeau Takes Office in Canada

OTTAWA (AP) — Pierre Elliott Trudeau becomes Canada's prime minister today in a changing of the guard within the ruling Liberal Party. He is expected to call an election soon to seek a new mandate for the party.

Reliable informants said Trudeau may announce a date for general elections within the next few days.

The Liberals chose Trudeau two weeks ago to succeed retiring Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, 70.

Seattle to Care for War-Injured Children

SEATTLE (AP) — Free medical treatment will be provided for war-injured South Vietnamese children under a project announced Wednesday by a group of Seattle physicians called the Doctors' Committee.

Plans are to bring four to six children here initially, and more as space and funds allow. The doctors hope to bring them on returning military flights.

Septic Tank Near Freedom Investigated

County Committee Will Look Into Possible Violation

Several members of the health and education committee of the Outagamie County Board, one member of the new zoning committee and Frank Charlesworth, the new county sanitarian Friday were investigating possible violations of sanitary codes by a septic tank in the Freedom area.

The investigation was called by Supv. Russell DeLaHunt, Kaukauna, chairman of the health and education committee.

The county does not have a sanitary code governing septic tanks. A proposed code has twice been referred back to committee for revision, the last time at the request of Supv. Joseph DeBruin, Town of Buchanan, a member of the zoning committee.

While the complaints of violations were to be investigated, committee members agreed they did not know what they could do about the situation other than ask the property owner to voluntarily make corrections.

DeBruin said he had asked to have the code referred back to the committee so they could come up with a "workable sanitary code." He said he wanted to keep enforcement "in the county and out of the Northeastern Regional Planning Commission."

Supv. Bernard Tillman, Town of Grand Chute, chairman of the zoning committee, said it was almost impossible to achieve 100 per cent enforcement of any code but that the code should be passed and then make any necessary changes.

Charlesworth agreed: "You will not find the bugs in an ordinance until it is put into practice."

New Policeman Quits Before He Starts as Outagamie Officer

Harold M. Burton, who recently was hired as an Outagamie County policeman, has resigned before he began duty.

Sheriff Norbert Marx said Friday that he was informed Burton resigned to take a job with the state patrol. Burton, 30, 631½ W. Parkway Blvd., Appleton, was one of three new policemen hired to start work May 1 as replacements for men who recently resigned.

The other men hired are Jerry M. Endres, 921 W. Commercial St., and Thomas Droot-san, Milwaukee.

Marx said that steps would be taken to replace Burton.

Defective Television Becomes Overheated

Appleton firemen were summoned to the Robert Milheiser home, 1537 S. Driscoll St., about 9:15 a.m. Friday to handle a defective television set that became overheated.

Firemen, upon receiving the call, were informed that the television set "blew up." At 4:10 p.m. Thursday, firemen went to the Lauderite Laundry, 813 W. College Ave., when a dryer caught fire.

Tri-City Boy Scouts Plan Dinner

Highlights of Boy Scouting in the Tri-City District of the Valley Council will be reviewed at the district's annual dinner Tuesday, April 23, at Sabre Lanes.

The program will begin 6:30 p.m. with an opening ceremony by Troop 12. During the business meeting officers will be elected and training awards and Scouters Keys will be presented.

Guest speaker will be William E. Hoffman, Wausau, a professional Scout. His talk is entitled "Believe It Or Not." Hoffman organized the Transatlantic Council at Heidelberg, Germany, which served sons of American military, and civilian personnel stationed in Europe, North Africa and the British Isles.

Highlights will include the rapid growth of the district which gained over 300 boys during the past year. The number of units increased from 85 to 94.

The most successful first aid event in the district's history will also be reviewed. This program had 51 per cent of the troops and 76 per cent of the boys participating.

Appleton Students to Fete Their Employers

About 50 Appleton high school students in the co-op office program will invite their employers to a banquet May 6 at the Appleton Elks Club completing the program's second year.

The program provides students on-the-job experience, in addition to two credits, as students work with Appleton businesses and also attend classes in the morning. Of 32 in the program last year, 31 were hired by their employer upon graduation and the other one went to college.

$21 Billion Remain $660 Million Cut Off Huge Defense Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate, which voted earlier this year to trim federal spending by $6 billion, has extended its economy drive to the administration's massive defense budget.

But the $660 million reduction voted Friday by a heavy 45 to 13 majority still left the military procurement authorization at a total of $21.3 billion, some $1.2 billion more than Congress appropriated last year.

After adopting the 3 per cent cut offered by Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., which did not specify where the reductions would be, the Senate passed the bill 54 to 3 and sent it on to the House. Voting against it were three Democrats: Ernest Gruening of Alaska, Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin and Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana.

Rail Merger Given Nod

Original Okay for 3-Way Link Altered After Protests

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission has given a clear track to the merger of the Great Northern, the Northern Pacific and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroads in the next two weeks.

The ICC voted 7-2 Friday to modify its original merger order. The change reflects demands by the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific—the Milwaukee Road—that it be protected from what it said would be unnecessary competition from the merger.

The northern lines merger first was rejected 6-5 by the ICC in 1966 after the Milwaukee Road and others complained about the merger.

The ICC reversed itself last November after the Milwaukee and the Chicago & North Western—both considered merger partners—came to an agreement with the northern lines.

The northern lines merger will create a single system with 26,000 miles of track in 17 states and two Canadian provinces.

In a 19-page order, the commission said Friday its revision of the original order "enables the Milwaukee to actively compete with the merged northern lines on traffic to and from the Pacific Northwest by providing for continued improvement of a joint line service in the central corridor."

Police Use Court as Excuse for Inefficiency, Justice Fortas Claims

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Some communities are using recent decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court as an excuse for inefficient police work, Associate Justice Abe Fortas says.

They are "used as an alibi by communities unwilling to put (effort) into the problem of eliminating the causes of crime by using resources or even taking the effort to build a police force to do what must be done," Justice Fortas said Wednesday in a talk at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Green Bay String Quartet to Make Guest Appearance at Harper Program

The premiere of a new composition for clarinet and piano, and a guest appearance by a Green Bay string quartet will mark a faculty chamber music program at 8 p.m. Thursday at Lawrence University's Harper Hall.

The new score is titled "Two

Sparks

Pieces for Clarinet and Piano" (1967), with the subheadings, "Elegy" and "Dance." It was written by Lawrence Prof. James W. Ming, and will be performed by Ming and clarinetist Dan C. Sparks, for whom it was composed and dedicated. Sparks is an assistant professor of music. Guest artists on the program will be the American Arts String Quartet, an ensemble organized as part of Green Bay's Operation Area Arts project under the Cooperative Educational Service Agency. The group consists of violinists Ann Anderson and Brice Farrar; violist Robert Swan; and cellist Carol Young. Miss Young also holds a Lawrence faculty appointment as a lecturer in music. Swan will join Sparks and pianist Robert Below, an associate professor of music, in performing the "Trio in E-flat Major, K. 498" (1786), by Mozart. The entire quartet will assist the two Lawrence artists in Aaron Copland's "Sextet for String Quartet, Clarinet and Piano" (1937), the program's final work. Also performing will be pianist Marjory Irvin, an associate professor at Lawrence. She will assist Sparks in the "Sonatina for Clarinet and Piano" (1943-1959), by Gail Kubik. The composer was a guest conductor on the campus in mid-February. The faculty program offers a broad stylistic look at chamber music literature, beginning with Ming's pieces, which are composed in the 12-tone idiom. The "Elegy," written last year in Paris during a sabbatical leave, is described by the composer as "an introspective lyrical piece of a rather sombre mood." The "Dance" was completed in Appleton last October and is a fast, rhythmic piece requiring considerable virtuosity on the part of the clarinetist. Mozart's "Trio," one of the first chamber pieces to employ the clarinet, consists of a flow ing "Andante" in sonata form; a minuet and trio; and a rondo episode "Finale" in rondo form. The Kubik "Sonatina" is

Neenah Soldier Given Posthumous Air Medal, Silver, Bronze Stars

NEENAH — Spec. 4 John P. Paulson, Jr., killed in Vietnam on Dec. 11, was presented the Silver Star, Bronze Star and Air Medal Friday by Captain William A. Dow, Department of Military Science, St. Norbert College, De Pere.

Accepting the awards posthumously were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Paulson, 223 Peckham St., Neenah.

The Silver Star, the third highest combat award, was presented for valorous action on Dec. 11 while Paulson was serving as a team leader with Company D, 2nd Battalion (Airborne) 8th Cavalry during a combat mission near Bong Song.

Absorbs Grenades

Observing an enemy force, Spec. 4 Paulson immediately placed suppression fire on the enemy, his citation said. When two grenades were thrown, he moved between the grenades and his men, thus absorbing the force of the exploding grenades.

He was mortally wounded, but his action saved the lives of the remainder of his team, the army said.

The Bronze Star and Air Medal were awarded for exceptionally meritorious service while engaged in hostile counter-insurgency operations.

Paulson actively participated in over 25 helicopter operations over hostile territory.

According to his citation, "Specialist Paulson was an inspiration to those with whom he served and by his devotion to duty brought credit to himself, his organization, his family and the military service."

Youths Admit Damage, Theft

Get Probation in Waupaca, Face Outagamie Charges

WAUPACA — Three New London youths and one from Hortonville have been arraigned in Municipal Justice Court on charges ranging from criminal damage to property to theft. All have pleaded guilty, were placed on probation for one year and are being held in the Waupaca County Jail awaiting transfer to Outagamie County where they must face more charges.

The juveniles also are being held for their part in the Waupaca County incidents. The juveniles and Robert Muskavitch, 19, 324 E. Quincy St., New London also are facing charges in Outagamie for the alleged April 3 rape of a Bear Creek girl.

Waupaca County is holding, in addition to Muskavitch, Peter G. Carmody, 18, route 2, Hortonville, Eugene R. Pink, 19, route 1, New London, and John W. Jolly, 18, 1324 Division St., New London.

The five youths admitted acts of violence over a two-county area while being questioned about smashing mail boxes in the Manawa area.

Shooting Windows

The youths admitted driving through the countryside shooting out windows with a pellet gun. Although they have not been charged for the offense, they admitted breaking over $1,000 worth of windows in the Appleton area and another $1,000 worth in the Kaukauna area. They also admitted break-ins at the Dog 'N Suds Drive In, south of New London, vandalism at a cooperative and trucking firm at Readfield, and the theft of a post office letter box in New London.

After unbolting the letter box from in front of Lippold and Queeman store on Pine St., Jolly, Carmody and Pink said they took the box to a swamp where they broke it open, and took out the mail which they also opened and obtained $15 in cash. The box was later thrown into the river near New London.

The largest window broken by the boys in Waupaca County was a five by six foot pane in the home of Arthur Collier, route 3, New London.

County Trunk S Closed at Bridge

NEW LONDON — Outagamie County Trunk S within the city limits will be closed for about a month beginning Monday because of repairs to the Embarras River bridge.

The road surface of the bridge has deteriorated and must be replaced. Several large pieces of blacktop have broken out and attempts to repair the small holes proved unsuccessful.

1968 Fire Damages Already More Than 1967 in Neenah

NEENAH — Fires accounted for losses totaling only $27,073 1967, but already, during the first four months of this year, this figure has more than tripled.

In the annual report released recently, the Neenah Fire Department was called out 194 companies, including eight false alarms.

Both the number of calls and the total dollar loss were well below the 1966 totals. However, the large number of grass and rubbish fires early this year, coupled with the blaze which gutted Jerry's Lakeside Bar and Hotel, injuring five persons, and the fire Feb. 22 which took the life of Reuben E. Klapps Sr., 404 Henry St., have already caused more damage than all of 1967, the fire department was called for fires which caused $14,990 in damages. Another $12,184 in fire damages where firemen were not present were reported to insurance companies.

Lightning was a major cause of damages—blamed for fires with a total dollar figure of over $6,000. Heating and range difficulties amounted to losses of more than $4,000.

There were 1,286 ambulance calls during 1967, some 69 more than the previous year. Neenah led the area with 708 calls, while Menasha had 398, and 180 calls were made in Winnebago County.

Accepting the Silver Star, Bronze Star and Air Medal for their son, Specialist 4 John P. Paulson Jr., are Mr. and Mrs. John Paulson, 233 Peckham St., Neenah. Paulson was killed in Vietnam on Dec. 11 and has been recognized for exceptionally meritorious service and valorous action that saved the lives of his

Possibilities Aired at Hearing

Menasha Sewage Facilities Sought for Waverly Beach

BY HAZEL THIEL

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

SHERWOOD — Town of Menasha sanitary district commissioners will be asked how far into the Town of Harrison they are willing to extend facilities, before preliminary planning to provide a sanitary district for the Waverly Beach area, it was decided Thursday night at a public informational meeting.

More than 100 persons crowded into the town hall as Oscar Egger, district engineer for the State Department of Health and Social Services, Fond du Lac, explained the necessity of proper sewage treatment facilities for the area east and north along U. S. 10 from Waverly. Egger said the low land and the clay soil make it difficult to get rid of wastes and pointed out the health hazards, especially various types of diseases caused by sewage wastes.

Egger had prepared a tentative plan for a strip about 300 feet wide along the west edge of the Town of Harrison, abutting U. S. 10 going north and south, and to the Schultz Trailer Court on the east end of Waverly on U. S. 10 and State 114 about a quarter mile.

However, the majority at the meeting wanted the area extended to Firelane No. 9, about two miles east of Waverly. Egger explained that if a sanitary district were formed for the area he had outlined, services from the Town of Menasha probably could be bought under contract yet this summer. His plan, however, could be enlarged to include more area, he said.

Town of Menasha Chairman Roland Kampo disclosed the Menasha and Harrison town boards had discussed a proposal whereby the Town of Menasha could furnish a limited amount of sewage facilities to the Waverly area. However, he said he had "no say so" about extending east as far as was indicated at the meeting, pointing out the Brighton Beach plant would not be able to handle the amount of sewage involved.

A commitment already had been made to Schultz Trailer Court, he said.

Kampo encouraged forming a sanitary district, and noted the added land value that sewer and water facilities would bring.

Tough Area

He warned, however, the lake area was tough. "Don't kid yourself that it isn't," he added, explaining that lift stations would be involved in the project. He urged municipal water facilities be installed at the same time.

Area residents originally petitioned the Town of Menasha for sewer and water facilities, but were turned down because the area is under the jurisdiction of the Town of Harrison, and at the time, the Town of Menasha had not completed the project for its own residents.

Several at the meeting felt the facilities should be provided for the entire Town of Harrison, especially in the Lake Winnebago area. Stagnant water in ditches in the Waverly area were noted to Egger as being health hazards which they had tried to eliminate for years. The township's tax levy and lack of services frequently was mentioned at the meeting, with one resident proposing annexation to Appleton.

Kampo, directing his remarks to the proponent, said, "With their tax rate, in a few years it will be $100 a thousand." The proponent replied, "We'll get there too. Just give 'em time."

Own System

It was noted that since there apparently was considerable interest in a larger area, it might be advisable for the residents in the area to have their own sewage collection system and treatment plant as well as water facilities, rather than to form a small sanitary district which would contract with the Town of Menasha.

Questions regarding costs of the project were raised to Kampo and Clarence Perry, of Perry-Carrington Engineering Corp., Marshfield, which is in charge of the High Cliff development sanitary district.

State and federal funds are available, with priority on need, it was explained. Several persons asked about joining the High Cliff Sanitary District; however, Perry did not encourage it, stating "it is too far away".

To form a sanitary district, 51 per cent of the property owners in the area involved must petition the Town of Harrison.

When the results of the joint meeting of the Harrison and Menasha town boards and sanitary commission are known, another meeting will be conducted and some definite steps taken.

Lawyer Joins Neenah Firm

NEENAH — Terry R. Gray, an attorney formerly associated with the Price Waterhouse firm in Milwaukee, has joined the

Gray

Neenah law firm of Di Renzo and Bomier.

Jerome Bomier said Gray, a graduate of Marquette University Law School, was in the tax department at Price Waterhouse, a public accounting firm.

His wife, Carol, is also a Marquette graduate. They have one child.

Town Officials To Get Offices By This Summer

MENASHA — An addition to the Town of Menasha office, which will provide four offices, including one for full-time chairman Roland Kampo, will be started next month.

The 40 by 40 foot concrete block one-story building will be expanded to the west by about 24 feet at a cost of $16,000.

The money has been set aside in the 1968-69 fiscal budget okayed by the town board last November.

Vandalism at Bear Creek Is Reported Again

Two Boys Questioned About Entry Through Unlocked Window

BEAR CREEK — Another school break-in, the fifth or sixth in the last three weeks, was reported to have occurred at the Bear Creek high school early Thursday evening.

Supt. Norbert Kalinosky said Friday that he was told Thursday night two youngsters, 10 to 12 years of age, had entered the high school through an unlocked window during daylight hours Thursday night.

The youths reportedly took only a retractable ruler, which was returned, but did considerable writing on the walls of the corridor, Kalinosky said. He reported the incident to David Fletcher, constable, Friday morning.

Before Curfew

The vandalism occurred several hours before the 10 p.m. curfew Fletcher established Tuesday to curb the recent flurry of break-ins and vandalism in the community's business places.

Fletcher had said any person under 18 who was found on the streets after 10 p.m. would be arrested, and his parents would have to retrieve him at the Outagamie County police station in Appleton.

Kalinosky said he was told shortly after the break-in Thursday of the illegal entry. He talked to the youths. The two boys, one of whom has been involved before in similar break-ins, were seen around the high school by two high school students.

The high school and grade school have been vandalized frequently during the recent flurry of break-ins.

Behind the Wheel Driver Training Set

NEENAH — A special registration for "Behind the Wheel" driver training will be held from 8 a.m. until noon on Saturday, April 20, in the west wing at Neenah High School.

All applicants must have completed their class room instruction before they can take this six hour training for a summer driver education program.

Badger Oil Burglary

MENASHA — A burglary of between $20 and $25 was discovered at Badger Oil Corp., 330 De Pere St., early this morning.

A patrolman discovered the break-in about 3:20 a.m. Entry was made by kicking in the front door, police said.

Mrs. Rose Schnitzer of Hilbert Pianist at 90 Is Still Studying

HILBERT — "I play the piano every day, some of my music by the great masters I haven't used for years, so now I'm studying again," said Mrs. Rose Schnitzer who observed her 90th birthday Sunday.

Mrs. Schnitzer frequently entertains neighbors and friends as she plays her parlor grand piano. Her love is of classics by Chopin, Bach, Tchaikovsky, Raymond Krautkramer. Her only son, Roland, died when he was 20.

As well as her musical ability the artful woman's home is filled with delicate needlepoints, admit to none. "I like them all," she said, her eyes were evidence of her sincerity.

For several years she was a nursery stock saleswoman and has a well landscaped yard. She favors flowering shrubs and has three ginkgo trees, native to here where she has been a member for 43 years. The Rev. John Schmitt was among Mrs. Schnitzer's many birthday visitors as he gave her a special blessing at a surprise open house party.

She was born in Hilbert, and assisted her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Runte, in a general store.

Later she went to Milwaukee and operated the Bon Ton Hat and Hair Bazaar. She was in the millinery business for 25 years.

Operated Store

She also operated a store on Hilbert's Main Street, which was razed last week. Still interested in hairdressing and enjoys going for rides, but most of all she loves her music "I play everyday — I'm studying" she said with a twinkle in her eyes as she sat at her favorite piece of furniture, decorated with an orchid. She was 90, but she didn't act it.

Agency Gets Planning Grant For $64,658

Funds Are Approved To Aid Development Of Urban Areas

A third consecutive federal planning grant, totaling $64,658, has been approved for the Northeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission.

This was disclosed Friday by officials of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, the granting agency. The money, called an urban planning assistance grant, covers two-thirds the regional planning commission's basic operating cost.

The grant is payable through the state and the other one-third is provided by the nine member counties of the regional planning commission. The money will be received May 1.

William Morris, regional planning commission executive director, said the money will help pay for comprehensive planning for the nine counties. These are Forest, Florence, Langlade, Menominee, Outagamie, Shawano, Waupaca, Waushara and Winnebago.

This money is a continuation of similar grants received the past two springs by the regional planning commission, Morris said.

Downtown Landmarks Being Razed

Two Appleton landmarks — the old Appleton Club and Geenen's Department Store — will be razed, starting April 29.

The announcement was made Friday by Joseph Engel, Appleton real estate man who has had the property sale accounts. Geenen's went out of business more than a year ago and since then efforts have been made to assemble a large enough package of property for a possible new downtown commercial development.

The Geenen Store is located in the 100 block of E. College Avenue. And the Appleton Club building is in the 100 block of Washington Street.

Engel said the buildings were being torn down "to save on taxes."

"We've been trying to put together a commercial site, but a few property owners have been uncooperative," Engel said.

There have been rumors over the past two years that Appleton may sometime in the future get another department store.

Traffic Tickets Cost Woman $151

Twenty-nine overdue parking tickets cost an Appleton woman $151 in Outagamie County Court Branch 2 Friday.

Appleton police said that Elizabeth Vredenburg, 1412 E. Frances St., was issued the tickets in the 100 block of E. Franklin Street from Jan. 3, 1967 to Oct. 18, 1967.

Because she had failed to pay the overdue parking tickets on time, she was assessed $5 per ticket plus $6 court costs. She forfeited bond in court Friday.

Mitchell's Expenses Top April Election Spending

Buckley Campaign Costs Total $2,751; Loser Spent $3,241

Mayor George Buckley's campaign for re-election April 2 cost $2,751.40 for a four-year term which will pay him $60,000.

And it cost the loser $3,241.17, according to financial statements filed with the city clerk's office by Clarence A. Mitchell and his campaign committee.

It shows that 26 candidates running for various local offices paid out $6,836.47 to cover all election expenses.

Among those who reported no campaign expense were: Assessor John Pierre, City Clerk Elden Broehm, Treasurer Ray Feuerstein, School Board candidates Charles Buchanan and John R. Stevens and aldermanic aspirants John F. Ayers, Al Stoebauer, John T. Vanden Heuvel and Charles Roek.

School Board Race
The only expense reported in the three-way race for school board was $13 by Mrs. Patricia Danford, the unsuccessful candidate.

Buckley reported receiving a series of small donations adding up to $255 and contributed $3,500 of his own money to the Committee for Buckley for Mayor.

All expenses were incurred by the committee, totaling $2,751.40.

Mitchell said he received donations amounting to $1,422 and spent $1,414.92.

The Mitchell for Mayor Committee reported contributions of $1,975 and spent $1,826.15.

City Atty. David Geenen, unopposed for re-election, reported expenditures of $75.

Aldermanic Expenses
William Arnold, who lost out to Pierre in the assessor's race for the second time in the same number of years, paid out $120 in campaign expenditures.

Among the candidates for city council, Miss Dorothy Draheim, who won the 14th Ward post, led the field with expenses totaling $130.

George E. Reynolds spent $13 in a successful bid for the 7th Ward alderman's position and Robert Roemer paid out $20 in the 8th Ward to round out the list of council newcomers.

Expenses of other council candidates: Harold Wolfram, $45; Walter Kalata, $31.35; Eldred Mullen, $16; Robin A. Long, $26.50; Thomas A. Kamps, $25; George Schwarzbauer, $68.78; Clifford Radder, $99.05; Donald L. Roth, $3.86; John Steidl, $83.28; and Norman Beyer, $9.

Children's TV Show Being Repeated Today
Because of technical problems resulting in sound loss, WFRV-TV, Channel 5, Green Bay, did not carry the "NBC Children Theater" special, "The Enormous Egg," in its entirety Thursday evening.

Channel 5 has obtained permission from NBC-TV to broadcast the entire show this afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m.

$1 Million EDA Grant Sought by Menominees
An application for $1 million Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission in a meeting with the regional EDA officials in Duluth, Minn.

Direct Grant
William Morris, regional planning commission executive director, indicated Friday the regional office was not an approving agency but it "found the application and all necessary procedures to receive the grant in perfect order." He expects construction to begin this summer.

In the application, the Town of Menominee (County) is seeking 80 per cent of the project's cost, including a $625,000 EDA grant directly from the federal agency. The other $375,000 EDA funds sought are part of the $2.5 million supplementary EDA funds recently earmarked for distribution by the Upper Great Lakes Regional Commission (UGLRC).

The grants would be used to build several buildings, surface roads, provide sewer and water, and prepare other land which will be offered for sale to private enterprise. About $2 million in private construction in the complex will include a motel and several service center buildings.

The land use plans for the project, called the Menominee Visitor Destination Center, were developed by Charles Hervey Jr., chief park planner, and Herbert Rieckmann Jr., associate planner.

Several Months
Morris, who expressed optimism about receiving final approval of the funds, said that the two planners have concentrated their efforts on the project since the supplementary funds were announced available.

Both have spent several months with the project and, Morris said, had completed the preliminaries which could have held up the application in Duluth.

Zwack and Peeples, Ltd., Appleton architects, have completed the rough preliminaries on the proposed buildings for the complex, Hervey said. The firm coordinated the buildings' structural design with the regional planning commission's land use design.

Many Hands Help Place Stone at UW-Green Bay

BY JAMES AUER
Post-Crescent Sunday Editor
GREEN BAY — Many distinguished hands held the trowel Friday afternoon as the cornerstone was placed and mortar laid for the first phase of construction of the newly-established University of Wisconsin-Green Bay.

A parade of University officials, Center system administrators, educators, student representatives, mayors and state and national legislators stepped forward one by one to throw a single scoop of mortar into a corner symbolically constructed of concrete blocks on the once-controversial Shorewood site.

Established by act of the Legislature July 29, 1965, the new campus will be opened to students in the fall of 1969, Chancellor Edward Weidner told the assembled dignitaries.

University campuses at Fox Valley, Manitowoc and Marinette will be integrated with the present Green Bay campus as the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay on July 1 of this year.

Three Units
The initial phase of construction, for which ground was broken Nov. 3, 1967, will include three units: a theme college building, a laboratory-classroom building, and a multi-purpose "surge" area that will initially house library collections and an instructional media center.

"This is an historic day in an historic city," Dr. James Nellen, a member of the U.W. board of regents, declared at an informal dinner-meeting held at the Elks Club, following the cornerstone ceremony.

"While the date is historic, the history of this institution is yet to be made, and only the future will decide the significance of this day," he said. "The association of this campus with the University of Wisconsin will afford an opportunity and impetus not usually afforded to recently-established institutions."

Many People
Noting that the cornerstone ceremony marked the "culmination of efforts of many people," Dr. Nellen voiced the belief that "some day this will be an institution comparable to the Madison campus."

Planning in recent months has been both "intense and voluminous," he added, "but plans will have to be altered by time or by changes of society. The regents feel the problem is in very capable hands."

Chancellor Weidner then spoke briefly, noting that some 200 lay persons, drawn from throughout the entire region of Northeastern Wisconsin, have served on "one committee or another" in making plans for the new University. Of this total, about 100 are members of five committees helping to develop an academic plan.

Entire Region
"This is a University which reflects the entire region of Northeastern Wisconsin," he said. "It has been a very interesting experience. I know of no other instance where so many people have contributed."

Dr. Weidner also expressed thanks to St. Norbert College and Lawrence University for their assistance in planning the new institution.

Dr. Fred Harvey Harrington, president of the University of Wisconsin, told his audience that "we have here an experiment of a very unusual sort — a campus which is really four campuses, part of a University system that is really very interesting."

"We're on schedule," he added, "which means we're on schedule toward something very good indeed . . . We are starting something that will be known beyond our time, and of which we are going to be extremely proud."

Kimberly Legion To Sponsor Team In Baseball Loop

KIMBERLY — Members of the American Legion voted to sponsor a legion baseball team this year after an absence from league competition for several seasons.

Delegates named to the spring conference at Sturgeon Bay on May 19 were Edward Vanden Boogaard, Ray Sears, Joseph Winus, Paul Doerfler and James Williams with John Vanden Heuvel and Henry Steers as alternates.

Delegates to the county council dinner at Bear Creek May 8 will include Sears, Doerfler, Winus, Clarence DeBruin and Edward Werth.

James Huff, Appleton, former ranger in Vietnam, showed slides and spoke of the fighting in that nation.

Law Dean
The regents unanimously named Spencer L. Kimball as new dean of the law school. He will succeed George Young, who has announced his resignation to return to teaching and research.

Marked the second time in his 21 years of service with the regents that he had assumed the presidency.

In 1947, at age 29, he gained the distinction of being the youngest person ever appointed to the university's governing body. He was named president in 1955 and was re-elected in 1956.

Kimball was first appointed to the board in 1947 by Gov. Oscar Rennebohm. He was reappointed by Gov. Walter J. Kohler in 1956 and reappointed by Knowles in 1965.

Named in 1965
Nellen, who was first named to the board by Knowles in 1965, is team physician for the Green Bay Packers.

Like Gelatt, Nellen is a Republican. Arthur DeBardeleben of Park Falls, whose term as regent expires May 1, charged the election of two Republicans to the top positions was a "partisan vending machines."

2 Fox Citizens Get Lawrence Public Service Scholarships

Public Service Scholarships have been given to John I. Davis, 1105 Timmers Lane, and Mrs. Joseph Kubicka, 810 Emily St. Menasha, for the third term at Lawrence according to Marjorie B. Hulbert, vice president.

More than 16 awards have been made to adults from Fox Valley communities since the program began in 1965. Scholarship recipients are entitled to take one course which will help in their community or church work.

Create Jobs
Hervey said the complex is expected to create over 300 full-time jobs and to have a regional impact, both requirements for an area to qualify for EDA funds. The tourist attraction will serve to broaden the tax base, he added.

The regional planning commission also is preparing a list of other possible projects for EDA supplementary funds earmarked recently to the UGLRC. The funds must be encumbered by June 30, the end of the fiscal year. However, Hervey said the UGLRC will have its own budget after that date and is expected to establish less restrictive criteria for granting money to depressed counties in Upper Michigan, and Northern Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Several Months
Morris, who expressed optimism about receiving final approval of the funds, said that the two planners have concentrated their efforts on the project since the supplementary funds were announced available.

Both have spent several months with the project and, Morris said, had completed the preliminaries which could have held up the application in Duluth.

Zwack and Peeples, Ltd., Appleton architects, have completed the rough preliminaries on the proposed buildings for the complex, Hervey said. The firm coordinated the buildings' structural design with the regional planning commission's land use design.

Neenah Trackmen Down East, West in Triangular

What Turned Out to be a two-man race saw Appleton-West's Tom Sommers edge Dan Hass of Neenah at the finish line to win the mile in Friday's triangular at Neenah involving the Rock-

Patriots Gain Seven First Places

NEENAH — Although gaining only five first places, Neenah High School reaped big dividends on seconds and thirds to defeat Appleton East and West in a triangular track meet Friday afternoon.

The Rockets, in posting their first victory for coach Glen Severson, chalked up 71 points to 54 for East and the Terrors' 34.

Added to the Red and White's five blue ribbons were nine seconds and eight third places.

The Patriots notched seven firsts but only came in second twice and third on four occasions. West netted victories in three events, was runnerup four times and garnered one third.

Dashman Russ Schulz paced the winners with triumphs in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and a second in the long jump. He copped the 100 in 10.7 seconds and the 220 in 21.4.

Hurdler Bill King led East with firsts in the highs in 15.8 seconds and the lows in 21.4. Neenah's Bob Moen was second in both events.

West also had a double winner in Steve Lamers, who won the high jump at 5 feet, 9 inches and the long jump with a leap of 21 feet, 9 inches. He added a second in the 100 yard dash.

Disqualification

The most exciting race of the afternoon wasn't as exciting as it appeared to be. Scott Schultz of East passed Neenah's Mike Hoyman in the last three yards of the 2-mile run but Hoyman had been disqualified because he was paced by teammates. Schultz's time was 10:36.7.

In another tight finish, the Terrors' Tom Sommers nipped Dan Hass of Neenah to win the mile in 4:52.4.

The Rockets posted the best time in the 880 yard relay but were disqualified and East picked up the first place points.

Neenah's Bill Francant won the 440 in 54.7, Sophomore John Arpin took the 880 in 2:07.2 and the mile relay team copped easily in 3:41.5.

East's other victories went to Bob Manwell, pole vault, 10 feet, 6 inches; Dave Brown, discus, 128 feet, 7 inches; and Terry Calder, shot put, 51 feet, 3/4 inches.

Neenah defeated East, 79-20.

Truckers' Della Has 4 Firsts

Kimberly Cops Triangular

KAUKAUNA — Clintonville's Sherman Della took four firsts and set two new track records, but the Kimberly High School track team won a triangular meet held here Friday afternoon.

The Papermakers had 56 1/2 points, Clintonville posted 50 and Kaukauna was third with 41 1/2. Kimberly's point-margin would have been higher if not for a disqualification in the mile relay.

Della had an outstanding day for the Truckers as he won the high and low hurdles, the long jump and the high jump. He set new records in the high jump and long jump.

In the high jump, Della cleared 6 feet 1 inch to topple the 6-foot record he set last year at the same track. Kimberly's Jeff Wildenberg also cleared 6-1, but Della was awarded first place because of having fewer misses.

In the long jump, Della went 21 feet 8 1/2 inches to better the old mark set by Chuck Wismer of Neenah by two inches.

Kaukauna's Jim Pomeroy also set a new mark in the discus as he tossed it 151 feet 11 inches to better the old mark of 147 feet 1 inch set by New Holstein's Ken Criter, new at the University of Wisconsin.

Tim Vander Velden, Kimberly's sophomore standout, had firsts in the 100-yard dash and 220. He also placed third in the shot put.

San Diego Front-Runner for Franchise Decision by NL to Expand Renews Milwaukee Hopes

CHICAGO (AP) — Robert C. Cannon, Milwaukee's delegate for a new franchise in a National League expansion next year, said the league's decision to add a pair of cities is at least a two-base hit for the former home of the Braves.

"This is what we wanted—expansion in 1969," Cannon said Friday after the league's club owners voted to expand from 10 to 12 teams. "We're halfway home."

He was in Chicago representing Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club Inc.

League spokesmen said they need "unanimous agreement" on two cities to complete a 1969 expansion. Milwaukee and San Diego are the only cities among the competitors with relatively new ballpark facilities.

Observers speculated Milwaukee would get a franchise if Buffalo and Dallas-Fort Worth representatives are unable to assure the league of acceptable stadium facilities by next season.

Front Runner

San Diego is considered a front runner in the bidding, thanks in part to its 50,000-seat stadium and pleasant weather.

Cannon, a Circuit Court judge, said he is not convinced that Buffalo and Dallas-Fort Worth are stronger possibilities than Milwaukee for the other franchise.

Montreal also was bidding, but league spokesmen said U.S. cities probably will get first crack.

"Milwaukee has all the facilities available," Cannon said, "to conform to any of the requirements set down by the National League."

"Financially, our group will meet any of the qualifications, plus the fact that it has an attractive radio-TV contract of $3.3 million for three years," he said.

Buffalo's assets in the bidding are a major TV market, and a large population area from which to draw attendance—including nearby Toronto. But some sources consider Buffalo's stadium to be aged.

The Dallas-Fort Worth delegation said its stadium can be expanded to 50,000-seat capacity in eight months.

Loss of Both Hands Does Not Stop Amateur Bowler

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The loss of both hands can't keep Robert Adams, 35, of Omaha off the bowling lanes.

Adams lost his hands two years ago when he came in contact with a 13,000-volt electric line while working for the Omaha Public Power district.

After 30 days in the hospital and four months off the job, he returned to work as a truck driver. He also took a part-time job as a bartender.

That job led him to bowling. Several friends and his employer at the bar where he worked took up a collection to help pay for a bowling adapter that is installed in an artificial arm.

Adams says as far as he knows, his bowling adapter is one of four in the nation.

How it Works

Here's how the adapter works:

A thin steel cable passes from one arm over Adams' shoulder to the other and operates the mechanism.

By holding his left arm stationary and bringing his right hand back, a rubber ring on the adapter, which is inserted in the ball, expands. When the right arm is brought forward the rubber ring constricts, releasing the ball.

Adams admits he has his troubles. The adapter often bends and if the ball is released too soon it goes into the gutter.

But the beginning bowler is upping his average. He started the season in a once-a-week mixed league with a 72 average and has now worked it up to an 86. His top game was a 120 and best series a 310.

Mrs. Adams, who bowls with her husband, is another beginner. She has a 95 average.

Austin won the pole vault and high hurdles while Schuler copped the shot put and discus to pace the Chuters.

St. John slammed the discus, recorded 12 firsts and grabbed nine second places.

Joe Coleman Throws First Major League Shutout, Tops A's 3-0

SPTS
By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Oakland isn't much of a city to visit, says Joe Coleman of the Washington Senators, but it's a good place to play cards and a better place to pitch.
"I don't mean to say anything bad about Oakland," Coleman said, "but there's nothing to do here. We woke up at 7 this morning (Friday) and there was nothing to do so we sat around and played cards."
But then Friday night rolled around and Coleman started pitching, and now Oakland wishes he hadn't come at all. The 21-year-old right-hander pitched the Senators to a 3-0 victory over Oakland for his first major league shutout.

Ann Kersten Hits National Honor Count

KAUKAUNA — Ann Kersten blasted a 602 national honor count in the Thursday night Women's League at Bowling Bar, the first of her kegling career.
She opened with a 199, followed with a 227 and closed with a 176. Mrs. Kersten carried a 156 average and has been bowling about 22 years.
The national honor count came on the last night of league bowling and surpassed her previous high of 577.

Bob Kneepkens, of Kaukauna, was trailing Clintonville's Ken Christianson at this point in the mile run Friday at Kaukauna, but Kneepkens came on strong to win the event in 4:48. Kimberly won the 3-way meet with Clintonville second and Kaukauna third. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Down by Nearly 5 Per Cent for 6 Games Excuses Vary for Slim Turnouts At Early Braves' Tilts in Atlanta

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer
ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Atlanta Braves, who moved to Dixie because of dwindling attendance in Milwaukee are wondering what's become of their Atlanta fans.
Attendance for the first home stand totaled 62,666 for six games—compared with 129,182 for the same number of games a year ago.
The Braves have numerous theories on why the crowds have been small this year, but they admit the turnouts have been disappointing.
William C. Bartholomay, president of the Braves, said before he left for a baseball meeting in Chicago that he still considers the area one of the best in the country.
"Atlanta and the Southeastern states are one of the greatest sports areas in America," he said.
Top Attractions
Bartholomay contended that crowds were off last year's turnout because the schedule a year ago brought several of baseball's top attractions to Atlanta.
He said that Juan Marichal, San Francisco pitcher, and Don Drysdale, Los Angeles pitcher, helped boost the early crowds a year ago, and that former Brave Eddie Mathews also made an early appearance wearing a Houston uniform.
The Masters Golf Tournament at Augusta this year probably cut into crowds, he said, and a rainout last Sunday kept the Braves from having what usually is their top crowd of the week.
Bartholomay did not mention it, but racial unrest probably has affected the turnouts this year in the home town of assassinated civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King.
Had No Violence
Atlanta has had no violence since Dr. King's death, but the stadium is in a predominantly Negro neighborhood, and some white fans may be avoiding the area.
"I think the people will come out when we get on a winning streak," said Hank Aaron. "Two or three wins will do a lot for attendance."
Catcher Joe Torre said that

Fond du Lac's Track Team Sweeps Menasha Bluejays

FOND DU LAC — Sweeping four events, Fond du Lac High School throttled Menasha, 90%-27% in the latter's outdoor track opener Friday night.
The Cardinals scored grand slams in the high hurdles, half mile, shot put and discus and also won both relays.
Mike Wilms accounted for the Bluejays' only two firsts, taking the 100 yard dash in 10.3 seconds and the 220 in 23.5. He also garnered a second place in the long jump.
Sophomore Tom Scvrnski was second in the 100, third in the long jump and tied for third in the 440.
Other Bluejay seconds went to Russ Rae, mile; Dave Hoks, 440 and Dennis Becher, who tied in the high jump.
Fondy's Dave Gustin won the mile in 4:49, the high jump at 5 feet, 6 inches and the long jump at 20 feet, 1 1/2 inches.
Bob Bendrick set a school record of 51.2 seconds in the 440 while other Fondy victors and their winning efforts included Ted Vandenberg, pole vault, 11 feet, 6 inches, and high hurdles, 16.7; Al Velasco, low hurdles, 22.2; Ralph Stark, 880, 2:08; Jerry Resop, shot put, 54 feet, 6 3/4 inches; Joe Blitzke, discus, 158 feet, 4 inches, 880 relay team, 1:37.1; and mile relay unit 3:36.

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston A.A. Marathon championship is back in the United States for the first time in 11 years and only the second since World War II today because a pupil listened to his tutor.
Lanky Ambrose Burfoot, the New England intercollegiate cross country champion from Groton, Conn., proved he learned his lessons well from veteran Johnny Kelley as he captured the 72nd annual Hopkinton-to-Boston Classic Friday.
"I used to dream that I'd be the first American to win the BAA since Mr. Kelley," Burfoot said. "I first met him when I was a high school junior and went out for cross country."

Aaron Homers as Braves Stop Redlegs

Jim Britton, warming up for his first major league start, hurt his arm. And then things got worse.
The young Atlanta right-hander surrendered hits to Cincinnati's first two hitters Friday night and seemed ripe for an early shower. But the first of four Atlanta double plays rescued him and he came on to pitch a seven-hitter and shut out the Reds 3-0.
Britton rode consecutive third inning homers by Hank Aaron and Sandy Valdespino and three more Atlanta DP's to the victory—the third straight for the Braves.
Cepeda Hits Homer
In other National League action Friday, Chris Short hurled a three-hitter as Philadelphia nipped Houston, 2-1. Jim Hart and Willie Mays led San Francisco to a 5-2 victory over Pittsburgh, Orlando Cepeda and Dick Simpson smashed two-run homers as St. Louis crushed Chicago 9-2 and Los Angeles squeezed past New York 3-2.
Detroit's game at Chicago was postponed by cold weather.
"My arm was dead," confessed Britton after beating the Reds. "That's the first time I haven't struck out anybody in a game. I guess you have to finesse them a little bit."
Runs Into Trouble
Britton fessed the Reds plenty in the opening inning when singles by Pete Rose and Alex Johnson put men on first and second. The youngster got dangerous Vada Pinson on a pop foul and then fed Tony Perez the double play pitch.
In the third, he ran into trouble again with two on and two out. But again he got Pinson, ending the threat. After that, it was all downhill.
Aaron's shot followed Sonny Jackson's two-out walk in the third and then Valdespino connected for his first National League home run. "It feels good to win," said Britton.
It felt good, too, for Rich Allen, who tagged his first home run of the year and helped Short beat the Astros. Allen, who missed the final two months last season after cutting his hand in an accident, had managed just one extra base hit in the first eight games this year. "I'm just glad to hit one hard," he said.
Bobby Wine also homered for the Phillies and John Bateman spoiled Short's bid for the shut-out with an eighth inning shot for the Astros. Short struck out nine.
Mays drilled a run-scoring single and Hart followed with a two-run homer that broke an eighth inning tie and beat Pittsburgh's Jim Bunning for the Giants.
Willie McCovey also homered for the Giants as Juan Marichal won his second game.
Simpson's two-run homer and Lou Brock two-run triple got the Cardinals started against Chicago. Later, Cepeda hit his second homer of the year after Curt Flood had extended his hitting streak to nine games.
Rookies Mike Torrez and Hal Gilson combined for the eighth-hitter — Torres' first major league victory.
Claude Osteen pitched a six-hitter and beat the Mets when Jim Lefebvre's eighth-inning double snapped a 1-1 tie and Rocky Calavito's single drove in an insurance run.
The Dodgers needed the extra run when Ron Swoboda opened the ninth with a home run but Osteen got the next three hitters to end it.

Down by Nearly 5 Per Cent for 6 Games

Excuses Vary for Slim Turnouts

At Early Braves' Tilts in Atlanta

he has been very disappointed in the turnout.
"It's a lot more fun to go out there when you have a big crowd pulling for you," Torre said. "I've really been disappointed."
Biggest crowd this season was 20,000 for the opener, against Cincinnati. Smallest was 5,475 against the Chicago Cubs. St. Louis, usually a top attraction in Atlanta, didn't draw many fans, either.
"I would have bet that 25,000 would have been here for each game in the St. Louis series," Torre said.
Lost First Two
The Braves lost their first two games of the season, on the road. At home they have won four of six games.
Atlanta Constitution Sports Editor Jesse Outlaw, writing an open letter to former Milwaukee Journal Sports Editor Oliver Kuechle, said, "You'll be happy to know that things haven't been going too well around here."
Outlaw said he believes the lag in attendance is because of "the Braves' performance in the late stages of the 1967 pennant race, and the unceremonious manner in which Billy Hitchcock was fired" as manager last fall with three games left in the season.
Atlanta finished seventh, 24 1/2 games out of the lead, last year

Four Hit, Others Duck 'Beanballs' Dominate Bosox, Indian Game

BOSTON (AP) — Four bat-side fastball by the Indians' Sonny Siebert. Asked if pitchers were working him inside more this season he said: "They're not pitching inside to get me out any more, but they're brushing me back more. It seems there's more brushing back going on all over. Every time you pick up a paper you read about someone getting hit."
9-2 Boston Victory
Smith, hit on the elbow by a Siebert pitch in the first inning of the 9-2 Boston victory, said enemy hurlers "are jamming me like they've never done before."
"I'm not saying they're trying to hit me," he said, "but it seems I've been jumping out of the batter's box quite a few times this year."
After hitting Smith, Siebert was struck by a Gary Waslewski pitch when he came to bat in the second inning. Umpire Bill Haller immediately called both managers to the plate for a conference.
"I just told them I didn't want things to get out of hand," Haller said later.
Despite the discussions, Waslewski hit Cleveland catcher Duke Sims later and Indian reliever Hal Kurtz hit Mike Andrews. In addition, Yastrzemski and Joe Foy both were forced to hit the dirt and numerous other batters had to pull away from tight pitches.
Cleveland Manager Al Dark had no comment on the incident and Red Sox pilot Dick Williams played it down.
"Haller started to say, 'Let's not throw at each other,'" Williams said. "Dark said, 'We're not.' I didn't complain. Dark didn't complain. Everything was okay until (second base umpire Larry) Napp came in all excited. There was no reason for him to come in."

Rockets Trip Winneconne By 6-1 Count

Neenah Scores 3 Runs in Both 2nd, 3rd Innings

NEENAH — Three-run second and third innings gave Neenah High School a 6-1 non-conference baseball victory over Winneconne here Friday afternoon.
Greg Schultz pitched the first five innings to gain the triumph. Steve Seymour worked the last two. Mike Heath went the distance for the Wolves.
The Rockets, in evening their record at 1-1, tallied the trio in the second on a hit batsman, a walk, Jim Kallenbach's bunt hit, two errors and a single by Schultz.
Final Three Runs
An error, a walk and hits by Rod Burr, Steve Bondow and Schultz were blended into the final three in the third.
Winneconne took a 1-0 lead in the first on Dallas Niemuth's double and a single by Ken Haase.
Schultz gave up four hits, walked three and fanned eight. Seymour was nicked for one hit and had two walks and a pair of strikeouts.
Heath, author of a no-hitter against Freedom earlier in the week, was touched for six hits. He issued five walks and chalked up 10 strikeouts.
Schultz and the Wolves' Russ Flanigan led their respective teams with two hits apiece.
Winneconne 100 000 0-1 5 3
Neenah 033 000 x-6 6 0
Heath and Berndt, Schultz, Seymour (6) and Milliken.

April-Aire Rallye Scheduled Sunday

The April-Aire Rallye will be staged by the Fox Valley Sports Car Club Sunday afternoon.
Registration will be held between noon and 1 p.m. at the May-Nor Bar, on Highway 100, near Little Chute.
Black Hawks took part in a 45-minute skate. Stan Mikita and Bobby Hull were among those who watched from the stands.
Chicago Coach Billy Reay, who had predicted his club would let down some after their tough series against New York, nevertheless was stunned by the 9-2 drubbing. He could only hope the Hawks' defense would tighten up tonight.
Hard-Rock Defense
The goaltending of ex-Black Hawk Glenn Hall and a hard-rock defense were St. Louis's major assets as the Blues rested up after a bruising seven-game conquest of Philadelphia's West Division pennant-winners.
Minnesota and Los Angeles also went the full seven games before the North Stars prevailed with a 9-4 road triumph Thursday night.
The Blues-North Stars set pits brothers against brother, with defensemen Barclay and Bob Plager of St. Louis tangling with Minnesota rearguard Bill Plager. Barclay, eldest of the trio at 27, set a record for penalty minutes in a single post-season series against Philadelphia.

Trucker '9' Tips Marion With Rally

CLINTONVILLE — Marion held a 4-1 lead Friday afternoon until a four-run sixth inning gave Clintonville a 5-4 edge over the visiting Mustangs here in a non-conference game.
Marion's West scored in the first inning by stealing home right before teammate Pederson struck out to retire the side.
A double by Marion's Brandenberg in the second inning eventually led to his scoring on an error. West also got to third on errors and Klitz batted him in to give Marion a 3-0 lead.
Clintonville's Korb got on by a walk in the third and scored after a single drive by Nordvig.
It looked as if things had been sewed up for Marion when Peterson scored the Mustang's fourth run in the sixth inning on an error. However, Clintonville rallied as Justman and Malloy scored on errors and a double by Nordvig drove Hoffman and Zingler home.
Marion 120 001 0-4 3 6
Clintonville 001 004 x-5 4 3

Fitch succeeded John Kundla as basketball coach.

Black Hawks, Canadiens Meet Tonight

Montreal Goalie Injured

MONTREAL (AP) — Gump Worsley, Montreal's acrobatic goaltender, was hurting as the Canadiens prepared to take on Chicago's shell-shocked Black Hawks tonight in the second game of their National Hockey League playoff series.
Worsley suffered bruised fingers on his right hand when struck with a shot during Friday's practice session at the Montreal Forum. The chubby goalie's cohorts were in top shape, however, after pounding the Hawks 9-2 in the series opener Thursday night.
The winner of the best-of-7 semifinal set will meet the survivor of the West Division series between expansionists St. Louis and Philadelphia for the Stanley Cup. The Blues and North Stars tangle Sunday afternoon at St. Louis in a nationally televised (CBS) series opener.
Top Goaltender
Worsley, the NHL's top goaltender during the regular season and a standout in the Canadiens' four-game playoff blitz of Boston, was struck on his stick hand by Gilles Tremblay's shot as the Cup favorites went through a 25-minute optional workout.
Coach Toe Blake said he didn't believe the injury was serious but conceded that he would have young Rogatien Vachon ready to replace the 38-year-old veteran if the need arose.
All but one of the Canadiens —right winger Bobby Rousseau —were on skates for the optional workout. In contrast, only 12

Consultants Sought to Plan TV Network

State Educational Communications Unit Provides Funds

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON — "We have more questions than answers," said William C. Kahl, chairman of Wisconsin's new Educational Communications Board Thursday as the group started a $26,000 search for solutions to the problems posed by the authorization for a statewide educational television system.

The board agreed that it must hire outside consultants for advice on the design of the system, and on the contents and use of the network after it is completed. It also must seek the advice of the interested citizens of the state through special advisory committees, the board noted as it began the groundwork necessary for the construction of the system authorized in the last minutes of the 1967 legislative session.

The Legislature voted $68,900 for the engineering and planning work necessary for the construction of the system, which will be financed through bonds issued by a state dummy building corporation.

Hike Firm
The board, meeting for the second time Thursday, voted to hire a Washington, D. C. engineering firm to conduct the state survey to determine best locations for four transmitters and two translators, a possible boosting of the power of the state-run FM radio network, and associated combination of facilities aimed at operating economies and efficiencies.

Another $8,000 will be spent to hire an additional outside consultant to advise on the use of the system and the desires of state educators on the content and aims of programming.

The board also concurred that, following the completion of those studies, it will appoint advisory units on a topical and regional basis to aid it in its work.

The board carefully noted that it will make the selections of advisory committee members recognizing the interests of members of the public.

Regional Groups
Some moves have been made in the state to organize regional groups in anticipation of the expansion of educational broadcasting, particularly in the Stevens Point area where the president of the local state university campus has been active.

His activities have raised some objections from Wausau Democratic Assemblyman David Obey, who authored an early form of the educational television bill. The bill, as formed specifies that one of the four transmitters shall be located in the area of Wausau, and Stevens Point is not mentioned.

Teens Told Harm Of Conformity

BY MAIJA PENIKS
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

OSHKOSH — Problems, legal restrictions and consequences produced by immoral or temperate conduct were outlined briefly to more than 600 teenagers here Friday by a man who deals with them daily.

Waukesha County Judge William Callow spoke on "Conformity" at the 11th annual state conference of the Wisconsin Youth Association.

"I have concluded from my many years on the bench that teens have made decisions during their high school years without the benefit of knowledge of the law," he said.

"For instance," he said, "young people must know that the theft of a comb, a tube of lipstick or a 10 cent item is treated by the law the same as the theft of an item worth $100."

Too Late

"Shoplifting is theft and although an offer to pay is usually made, it is too late after the person has left the store," the judge said, adding, "this penalty section of the statutes provides for a jail sentence of up to six months."

Advisory Committee Explains Functions at New London

NEW LONDON — How the citizens advisory committee will work in co-ordination with the city council and planning commission has been outlined by Joseph Obertin, chairman.

Obertin said the committee is to provide help to the council and commission in working out problems, performing studies and form a closer link between the citizens and municipal government.

"It isn't our place to tell the council or planning commission how to operate or conduct their business," the chairman said. The idea behind this committee (formed by the city council in conjunction with the housing and urban development program) is to spread participation

Waupaca C of C Plans to Expand Information Service

WAUPACA — The Waupaca Chamber of Commerce received county board approval, Wednesday, to enlarge its information booth located on the courthouse square.

C. Kenneth Petersen, a member of the chamber, explained to the board members how the organization is planning to establish a county chamber of commerce and to build a larger information booth and office which will remain open year round. Now the booth is staffed only during summer months.

Assist Communities

G. H. Stordock, secretary of the Waupaca chamber, assisted Petersen in explaining the chamber's functions and how it receives inquiries not only pertaining to the Waupaca area but also the entire county.

"We are now receiving an average of 10 inquiries a day and many of them are asking questions about other communities of the county," Stordock said. A county chamber could assist the many city chambers throughout the county, they said.

A building approximately three times larger than the one now located on the courthouse square will be required, Petersen said. It would provide enough space so that a year around operation could be conducted.

The chamber did not start plans for the building until it was assured of getting the extra space.

Other chambers in the county will now be contacted to help organize a program of coordinating the efforts to bring more people to Waupaca County, Stordock said.

Mrs. Rose Schnitzer of Hilbert Pianist at 90 Is Still Studying

HILBERT — "I play the Easter blessing at a surprise piano every day, some of my open house party. She was born in Hilbert, and hasn't used for years, so now I'm studying again," said Mrs. Rose Schnitzer who observed her 90th birthday Sunday.

Mrs. Schnitzer frequently entertains neighbors and friends as she plays her parlor grand piano. Her love is of classics by Chopin, Bach, Tchaikovsky, Mendelssohn. She plays all their compositions with ease and reads her notes without the aid of glasses.

Asked for favorite, she will admit to none. "I like them all — the great masters, they had such feeling," she said, her bright blue eyes were evidence of her sincerity.

Church Organist

She says she has been playing piano since she was 10 years old and for 14 years was organist at St. Mary Catholic Church here where she has been a member for 43 years. The Rev. John Schmitt was among Mrs. Schnitzer's many birthday visitors who gave her a special noted landscape artist.

For several years she was a nursery stock saleswoman and has a well landscaped yard. She has three ginkgo trees, native to Japan, which are viewed frequently by pupils and garden lovers. Now Mrs. Schnitzer's health only permits her to take care of her flower boxes and she is eagerly awaiting warm weather when she can go and choose a variety of plants for them.

The vase elms and northern maple collection in Hilbert's Civic Park, were the choice of Mrs. Schnitzer "when Mr. Frank Pieper was in office" she didn't remember how long ago it was.

However, she is alert and interested in current events, reads a newspaper, watches television and enjoys going for rides, but most of all she loves her music "I play everyday — I'm studying" she said with a twinkle in her eyes as she sat at her favorite piece of furniture, decorated with an orchid. She was 90, but she didn't act it.

Supt. Norbert Kalinosky said Friday that he was told Thursday night two youngsters, 10 to 12 years of age, had entered the high school through an unlocked window during daylight hours Thursday night.

The youths reportedly took only a retractable ruler, which was returned, but did considerable writing on the walls of the study by the Waupaca county corridor, Kalinosky said. He reported the incident to David Fletcher, constable, Friday morning.

Before Curfew

The vandalism occurred several hours before the 10 p.m. curfew Fletcher established Tuesday to curb the recent flurry of break-ins and vandalism in the community's business places.

Fletcher had said any person under 18 who was found on the streets after 10 p.m. would be arrested, and his parents would have to retrieve him at the Outagamie County police station in Appleton.

Kalinosky said he was told shortly after the break-in Thursday of the illegal entry. He talked to the youths. The two boys, one of whom has been involved before in similar break-ins, were seen around the high school by two high school students.

Chances of Approval Called Good

An application for $1 million Economic Development Administration (EDA) funds to develop a recreation complex in Menominee County is being forwarded to Washington, D.C., with chances being "good that it could be approved in about a month."

This was learned this week by Menominee County officials and members of the Northeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission in a meeting with the regional EDA officials in Duluth, Minn.

William Morris, regional planning commission executive director, indicated Friday the regional office was not an approving agency but it "found the application and all necessary procedures to receive the grant in perfect order." He expects construction to begin this summer.

Direct Grant

In the application, the Town of Menominee (County) is seeking 80 per cent of the project's cost, including a $625,000 EDA grant directly from the federal agency. The other $375,000 EDA funds sought are part of the $2.5 million supplementary EDA funds recently earmarked for distribution by the Upper Great Lakes Regional Commission (UGLRC).

The grants would be used to build several buildings, surface roads, provide sewer and water, and prepare other land which will be offered for sale to private enterprise. About $2 million in private construction in the complex will include a motel and several service center buildings.

The land use plans for the project, called the Menominee Visitor Destination Center, were developed by Charles Hervey Jr., chief park planner, and Herbert Rieckmann Jr., associate planner.

Several Months

Morris, who expressed optimism about receiving final approval of the funds, said that the two planners have concentrated their efforts on the project since the supplementary funds were announced available.

Both have spent several months with the project and, Morris said, had completed the preliminaries which could have held up the application in Duluth.

Zwack and Peeples, Ltd., Appleton architects, have completed the rough preliminaries on the proposed buildings for the complex, Hervey said. The firm coordinated the buildings' structural design with the regional planning commission's land use design.

A Zwack representative, Harold Jordahl, U.S. Department of the Interior, Madison office, and Frank Christopherson, EDA field representative, Superior, participated in the meeting at Duluth. Morris said the total application was covered "with a fine-tooth comb" by EDA officials to assure it was in proper order.

Should Continue

Dr. Walter P. Thoresen, area EDA director, Duluth, said he felt the development progress of the project should be continued, Morris reported.

Dr. Thoresen told Morris to follow-up the application, the Menominee officials to obtain appraisals of the complex's site, and Jordahl indicated he would request the UGLRC to reserve the $375,000 necessary to fund the project. Jordahl is the liaison officer of the UGLRC.

The proposed complex is located west of Keshena at States 55 and 47, and is a 70-acre site at a bend in the Wolf River. The project includes an additional 24-acre section for wildlife areas.

Create Jobs

Hervey said the complex is expected to create over 300 full-time jobs and to have a regional impact, both requirements for an area to qualify for EDA funds. The tourist attraction will serve to broaden the tax base, he added.

The regional planning commission also is preparing a list of other possible projects for EDA supplementary funds earmarked recently to the UGLRC. The funds must be encumbered by June 30, the end of the fiscal year. However, Hervey said the UGLRC will have its own budget after that date and is expected to establish less restrictive criteria for granting money to depressed counties in Upper Michigan, and Northern Wisconsin and Minnesota.
